OF THE

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY

HELD IN THE CITY OF IOWA CITY, IOWA

OCTOBER, 17, 18, 19, 1922

OPENING SESSION

---

Iowa City, Tuesday Morning, October 17, 1922.

The Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa, convened at 9 o'clock in the Masonic Temple, President Nannie Buckley, of Stuart, in the chair.

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL

Geo. Buckley, husband of the President, presented the gavel in the following words:

"A year ago I promised you my support so far as it was within my power. I tried to do what I could for your President this year while she has tried to be with you and to do for this Order what has been her ambition to do, and today before she takes her seat to preside at this meeting, I wish to say that I have a little surprise for her. A number of years ago she was back to her old native state where she was born, in Cambridge, Illinois, bringing back with her a piece of wood from the stair rail out of the house in which she was born. It is just a piece of black walnut but I thought she ought to have some thing to preside with so I have made a gavel. This gavel I have made myself, all but the inscription, which says, 'Nannie Buckley, President of the Rebekah Assembly, 1922.' I present you this gavel to preside with."

The President responded in a happy manner.

The chair made appointments as follows:

Assistants to the Marshal—Julia Tierney, Ottumwa, and Grace Alexander, Des Moines.

Assistants to the Conductor—Maggie Miller, Iowa City, and Bessie Scholz, Davenport.

Pianist—Mayme McKee, Stuart.

Outside Stenographer—Laura Davis, Menlo.

Hannah Rivenberg, Greenfield, was appointed on Finance Committee in place of Martha Rivenberg.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The end of a Perfect Day, or the close of another year if you will have it such, but to me, it has been but a day. A day with its ever-widening ripples caused by our thoughts and deeds, on the waters of life, has folded its leaves, as a volume already closed, but the influence of these ripples has told; recorded on these leaves are the motives of our hearts' best impulse.

If the tiny seed, cast about by wayward winds, takes root and often bears the most precious fruit, unknown to us, how much more then can the seed accomplish which has been tended with the greatest care, the care of faithfulness.

"Faith of our fathers, living still,
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword."

Permitted by an All-Wise Father to add another volume in the history of our noble Order, as we once more meet in annual session to review the fruits of our labor, that had been made by the seeds we cast in the past year. I know not how my work will compare with those of other years. I am not measuring myself by what has been done. I have just tried in my way to scatter the seeds that would bear the most precious fruit, if not in my year they would in the years to come, and I shall be satisfied to sit quietly by and see the sisters that come in turn, as our President, help gather in the fruit—the fruit of the seed sown, by one who just gave to the Order the best she had to give.

The desired result was not always accomplished, but I do feel grateful indeed for the gain in attendance. I feel that this one seed took root and the result will be worth the effort put forth.

The seed of proficiency sown by other hands, has sure given of its most precious fruits this year.

You will notice by my record of visits that it has been necessary for me to travel many miles. This I have always tried to do by the cheapest means, so as to keep the expense as low as possible, and in making my official visits to conventions and lodges, I have always tried to make, when called to go to a lodge or convention, other meetings close, and in this way I have reached many places with but little more expense, and have reached lodges that have never had a visit from a President. In remembering what a big family we have in our splendid jurisdiction, and that our family is in 554 different homes, it is not strange if a President does not get to visit all. But I have tried to reach all close to me, so that others might give to the ones close to them. In reaching the ones close, I have given of my time to them when it was necessary for me to be in my office, and I could give them a part of the day or evening. I have given of my time to the smaller and weaker lodges and have been well repaid, for I find it means life to them to get the advice and help from an officer.

As we meet in this thirty-fifth session to review the work of the past year and to plan for the future, let us make it one of "Peace," one that shall long be remembered.

Before us is the future. It bids us enter with a new leaf of time, and the leaf will be folded into a volume, as you profit by the failures in the past. "By our mistakes we learn."

Welcome, welcome, thrice welcome are the new delegates and members and as you join your efforts with ours to sow the seed of Friendship, Love and Truth, let me ask you, sister delegates, to be prompt in your attendance at every session to help make this session both pleasant and profitable. And to my co-workers, do as you have done the past year, your best. "Angels can do no more."

And now my thoughts turn backward to the Past Presidents, whose faces will ever brighten my memories, as I recall with pride and pleasure, their work, which can never fade. It is to them we owe much of what this year has brought forth.

I realize that mistakes have been made; they were not of the heart, so will you not spread the mantle of charity, with a hand as light as one by which you would have it spread for your loved ones? I meant the best.

When you considered me worthy to fill the office of President, I realized fully the honor you conferred upon me. For this I thank you.

STATE OF THE ORDER

The many calls that constantly poured into my office, asking for my presence at class initiations, conventions, regular lodge work and "get together" meetings, told the story of just what the Order was doing. The calls were too many for me to answer all. Much as I would have loved to answer every invitation, I found it to be a physical impossibility to do so, but many were the pleasant afternoons and evenings spent with the different members in their lodge room, helping and planning the work of our beloved Order.

I fully realize that our work is going forward by leaps and bounds, not alone in gain of members, but along all lines. Our officers are becoming more efficient in their work. Members are striving to make their lodge one of the best. They are coming to the front, as they realize that the fraternal organization of which they are members, stands in the front ranks, second to none.

The many letters that come to my desk, prove that there are but few lodges that are not up in line. The members as never before are fully realizing that the things that are worth doing at all are worth doing well.

Last January we were more than pleased to know every lodge in the state had paid their per capita tax.

Not one charter taken up.

It is true we have the weak lodges with us and we have had to give of our time and strength to them, sometimes making more than one long trip to help them out. But it has been worth it all. For we have far passed Sister Allie's dream. My own fondest hopes have been fully realized in the gain of eleven new Rebekah lodges, and to be able to say to our Grand Master, "We are with you today, 60,000 strong."

OUR HOMES

It has been my great privilege to visit in our Homes at Mason City at different times the past year. To me they were ever uppermost in my thought.

No task has been too great for the members throughout the state if they knew they were doing for our dear ones in the Home. When we, as members, realize the loneliness and sorrow which this Home has washed away, with love, we then would fully realize that Odd Fellowship and Rebekahism need no other monument.

I wish every member could visit our beautiful Homes, and have that pleasure of knowing "our family." "To know them is but to love them."

For the Homes this year, our special work has been to raise a fund to furnish the rooms in the hospital, which we hope in the near future to have, so that we may be better able to give to the care and comfort of our family.

I am pleased to state we have a splendid sum already for this fund. So many of our lodges responded to the call and gave so liberally of what had been entrusted to them.

During the past year we have had but little sickness among our children, and not much with our old people, only that which comes to ones who are entering the evening of life.

If you want to give real pleasure, go to our Homes in the summer time when Nature has done its best, and spread over the Mother Earth a carpet of richest green, dotted here and there with beautiful flowers, and there join with our children in their work and play, and in the shade of porch and tree, visit with our older brothers and sisters.

You will always get the glad hand of true Odd Fellowship and Rebekahism from the superintendent, Brother A. W. Stubbs, and Sister Stubbs, the matron. They are never too busy with their many cares and duties to see that you will be taken through the Homes, and they are always glad to welcome the brothers and sisters from over the state when they can give them a call. From our Homes the latch string always hangs out.

CONVENTIONS

I was not a believer in convention work, but after the many splendid meetings held in the different districts and to see and know how much good could be accomplished in one day's work, I saw that my belief was without foundation. And I am sure Sister Agnes Mercer, Past President of the Assembly, knew full well just what good could be accomplished when she organized her first district convention.

I took up the work of convention just a little differently than some have done. I don't say it was any better way, but just my way. At the beginning of the day's work in conventions, I conducted them very much as you would the day's work in your public schools. As each individual or lodge demonstrated their particular line of work that had been assigned them to do, we began to ask questions along all the lines of that particular phase of our work, thus confining all questions to one subject. In this way I believe the members got a fuller understanding of the different parts of our work, and by so doing, the question box was done away with. And the members did not hesitate in asking many questions that would be a help to their lodge. We became one big family, asking and answering questions until each branch of the work had been made plain.

I was sorry not to be able to attend all conventions but where I did not go I tried to have a Grand Officer or Past President take up this line of the work.

MEETINGS

I regret my inability to accept all invitations given me during the year to attend meetings, and take part in programs arranged for the Order. I thank those from whom the invitations came.

My first joy and privilege was to attend my home lodge, October 27th, and there to receive the honors of the degree for the first time as your President, and to receive the words of encouragement; to know as the days, weeks and months went on that the members of Menlo Rebekah Lodge were ever loyal and faithful, striving in every way to make my work a little lighter and the path a bit brighter.

One meeting I shall ever treasure was that of a reception given by Columbia Lodge, No. 6, of Stuart, my mother lodge. This was given on my return trip from the first real hard work of a week in visiting lodges and instituting three new ones. To know I had the support of the "home and mother" lodge and my home county, was always an inspiration and help to me, to do the worth while things.

Many were the pleasant gatherings planned for my pleasure and comfort as I worked among the different lodges over the state. I shall ever cherish the remembrance of receptions, luncheons, house parties and picnics held in my honor, all of which helped to make the work seem worth every effort put forth.

I would love to make mention of the different ones who so royally entertained for me, but time and space does not permit. You who know and love me best, know I appreciate it more than written words can tell.

LODGES

I have put forth every effort to go to as many lodges as possible, as I felt that in this way I could best get in touch with our members and thus see what was most needful in the different lodge rooms over the state.

I found the officers very good in their work, many getting along without the use of the Ritual. And the day is not far off when I believe our members will be proficient along all lines of their work.

I find now the officers need the help along the line of knowing how to conduct their meetings, to make them interesting, and to get each officer and member to fully realize that to make a success of anything they must know their duties and then do them. Too often this has been left for the Noble Grand and her faithful Secretary to perform.

And just a word to the Past Noble Grands. You should feel it to be your duty to be in your place in the lodge room. After receiving all the honors, you then should help others. I have little use for any slacker.

I feel the help and words of encouragement that I have given in different lodge rooms, has been gratefully received and will be of lasting benefit to the members.

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS

I have published, in each issue of the Iowa Odd Fellow, an Official Communication, commencing with November 1, 1921. In all communications I tried in every way to give help and encouragement to all lodges and tried by my letters to keep them all working along the same line. By comparing them with the Calendar and Year Book issued from my office the first of January, 1922, and the Constitution and By-Laws, each lodge would be doing the same line of work on the same regular meeting night.

I have received from individuals, lodges and other jurisdictions words of praise for the help that the Official Letters have been. And in other jurisdictions have been asked for a copy of the Calendar and Year Book. So I feel that the Official Letters and Year Book were a great help to our members.

I was indeed grieved to find, in some places, my Calendar hanging on the wall of the lodge room, clean and spotless. It had never been used for the purpose intended. The Iowa Odd Fellow folded neatly in the wrapper that the company had placed them in. But true, the cases like the above are very few and I do believe you can better reach the Rebekahs in this way than any other.

In all letters I tried in every way to keep before the Rebekahs of Iowa my slogan for this year, as I believed I could see better results by so doing than in giving anything else to make this the "Peace Year." "Advertise the Rebekah degree by living up to its teachings."

OFFICIAL LETTERS TO DISTRICT DEPUTY PRESIDENTS

On the 15th of November and 1st of June I issued the following letters, together with all report blanks and questions to my District Deputy Presidents:

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY OF IOWA, I. O. O. F.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Stuart, Iowa, November 15, 1921.

To the District Deputy Presidents:

Dear Sister. Your personal letter came to my office when Vice President, saying you would accept the appointment of Deputy President for your district and pledging your most loyal support for the coming year.

It is with pleasure that I now officially appoint you District Deputy President.

It was my privilege a few years ago to serve as District Deputy President and I felt it an honor to serve the President in that way. I trust you will feel likewise and will do all you can to assist the lodges in your district—especially the weaker ones.

Write to the Secretaries of the various lodges in your district, asking for an early date in January for installation; have them plan to have an installing staff ready to help you do the work; if they cannot do this ask if you may bring one with you.

Make your work interesting—remember it's often the first meeting of the year that adds new life, new officers taking up the work. Plan to have at least one joint installation with the Odd Fellows. Let us begin the year right; you as District Deputy President setting the example by having your work well planned and doing the work of the installing officer without the use of the Ritual.

Let us keep our slogan before us: ADVERTISE THE REBEKAH DEGREE BY LIVING UP TO ITS TEACHINGS

We know it pays to advertise good goods, then let our good deeds, thoughts and actions be our advertisement.

As you go among the different lodges in your district, make a note of what you think most needful in that particular lodge, then see if you cannot in some way help them; if the President's help is needed let me know and I WILL PLAN TO ASSIST YOU.

Boost for good attendance, it's the presence of the members that counts; you may be able to suggest some plan that will help in that way. My plan for the year is for each Deputy President to install the different lodges both times during the year; the first time you will get in touch with the workings of the lodges, then when you make the second visit you may be of very great service to them. Urge upon every lodge the great benefit of a good degree staff; if they have not one, help them organize, also insist upon them having an installing staff.

Every lodge, no matter how small, can and should have both such staffs. I feel confident you will make a great success of your work and I just want to leave this thought with you—PLAN YOUR WORK. THEN WORK YOUR PLANS.

Read the instructions on your commission very carefully—you will notice among them No. 6, in regard to your expenses—govern yourselves accordingly.

You will find enclosed the key and please note the Annual and Semi-annual Pass Words (in cipher) at the bottom of letter.

You will communicate these pass words to the Noble Grand of each lodge after the installation of officers.

Be sure you get them correct and that the Noble Grand has them correct.

Wishing you all success in the work of our Order, I am yours,

Sincerely and fraternally,

NANNIE BUCKLEY,

President.

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY OF IOWA, I. O. O. F.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Stuart, Iowa, June 1, 1922.

District Deputy President:

Dear Sister: We are now about to take up the work for the last half of the year. I am more than pleased with your work of the first six months. I feel you have aided in every way to raise the standard in our Order along all lines of the work. Nothing has seemed too hard a task for you to do when I have expressed a wish to have things done for the good of the Order.

I am indeed grateful for the effort put forth by my District Deputy Presidents to help make this one of the banner years when all lodges paid their per capita tax.

You will please find enclosed the Semi-annual Pass Word (in cipher), also blank form to fill out; this you will please attend to and send to my office not later than August 5th.

Please read over your commission again and also the instructions, so you may be better prepared to take up the work in July.

Please write all lodges in your district to arrange a date for installation and urge all to be prepared with the different parts of the work. Have an installing staff and each one with the different parts committed and see that the incoming Noble Grand and Vice Grand be prepared along all lines of their work. Please impress on them the importance of having their duties well in hand, as much of the prosperity of the lodge depends upon this.

I know you have approved of my slogan for the year—"Advertise the Rebekah Degree by Living Up to Its Teachings." The reports and helpful letters you have sent me, show this to be true. You have been interested in the weak lodges, you have tried to do your part in instituting new lodges for which I am indeed very thankful, for this work cannot be done alone. And we are looking forward to a gain in attendance, a gain in membership, a gain in new lodges and a gain in proficiency.

I am very anxious that you should go to every lodge this term and conduct the work yourself or see that the same is done in such a manner as to create interest along all lines.

It is your duty to help institute new lodges and I desire that each Deputy shall investigate all places in her district where one might be organized. Do all you can to interest those eligible in such places in our work and help them to realize the benefits to be derived from a Rebekah lodge. We now have a few new lodges and I am anxious to see a number of them at the close of my term of office, and see which part of the state has the greatest number to their credit—the north or south.

Your Assembly President desires that this shall be made the "banner year" along all lines; this can only be accomplished by the loyal support of my faithful Deputies.

If we all work hand in hand much can be accomplished for our beloved Order, so let us be up and doing worth while things.

Will you please use your personal influence with all lodges in your district to urge the members to do all they can to raise money for our Home. This year we are trying to raise enough money to furnish the hospital. Some lodges are furnishing one room; this may be done at a cost of one hundred dollars. If your lodges do not feel equal to this can your county not get together and raise the money? Let this be one of your tasks for our dear ones in the Home. Please report same to me, so each lodge or county shall get the proper credit.

I am grateful for the work done and accomplished by the Deputies and I wish to thank each one for her loyal devotion to the work in which we are now engaged, the work that was entrusted to us for the year. I can truly say I have had no such a thing as a drone in my "busy household." I feel that we shall indeed reap an abundant harvest. And I say to you in closing—well done.

In Friendship, Love and Truth,

I am, most loyally yours,

NANNIE BUCKLEY,

President.

IN MEMORIUM

Since the dawn of Odd Fellowship, few years have passed when someone has not answered the call of our Grand Master. It is with deep sorrow I mention the passing of our dear Past President, Mary

E. Kellogg. Tears blind our eyes and we cannot see His wise purpose behind the scenes of sorrow, but we hear His whispering voice with this word to comfort us:

"Where the river of life flows soft and sweet,
Through the garden of life so fair,
I have taken this loved one, this golden link;
You shall find her waiting there."

To the husband and son we extend our loving sympathy. May they patiently await the clearing of the mist and with this beautiful thought, that her life is not ended; it is only the preparation of the life that has been finished and has gone unto larger service into the world beyond the gates.

"She is at home in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair,
Some day, some time, when your task is done
And silently sinks the golden sun,
With joy you will meet her there."

Past Grand Master Z. A. Church has answered the call since our last meeting. To the wife and daughters, we express our heartfelt sympathy.

It is with deep sorrow that I mention the passing of Grand Sire Joseph Oliver, whose death cast a shadow over all.

We are saddened by the thought that many of our lodges have had to give up loved ones. To the many friends and co-workers of these noble men and women, let me add this little thought:

"Weep not that their toils are over,
Weep not that their race is run,
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our work, like theirs, is done."

VISITATIONS

GREETINGS

It was a pleasure to send to all jurisdictions, the Presidents of Rebekah Assemblies, the Grand Sire, the Grand Lodge and Assembly Officers of Iowa, the following message:

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In extending fraternal greetings the Rebekahs of Iowa take great pleasure in remembering their sisters in other jurisdictions.

May the year 1922 be the greatest in our history, made so by all our members "Advertising the Rebekah Degree by Living up to its Teachings."

Sincerely and fraternally,

NANNIE REED BUCKLEY,

President.

Stuart, Iowa.

I received 120 greetings from other jurisdictions.

I appreciate the many greetings and letters of encouragement. They came as a ray of sunshine. How these messages, bringing words of comfort and cheer, helped to brighten the dark moments and ever lending inspiration.

VISITS TO OTHER JURISDICTIONS

On August 19-20, it was my privilege to visit our sister jurisdiction to the east of us, Illinois. I was accompanied on this little visit by my niece, Evelyn Cox. We were royally entertained in my old home town, Cambridge, the place of my birth, by the brothers and sisters. It was my pleasure to meet the State President, Nellie Thompson, on July Fourth at Keokuk. This Grand Jurisdiction is in a prosperous condition.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT PARK

One of the most pleasant and delightful spots in Iowa I found to be located at P. M. camp. I was indeed sorry that I was only privileged to stay at "The Playground of Odd Fellowship" a few brief hours. But this short and hurried visit proved to me that the camp is one of the most popular places in Iowa, made so by the untiring efforts of General O. H. Sweeney and his co-workers.

Here at the camp all formality is laid aside. We are as one big family. Let us attend these meetings, for by not doing so, we are missing much of the good to be derived from our Order.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR HOMES

When I told the Trustees and members of the Board I would do my bit in trying to raise funds enough to furnish the rooms for the hospital, I did not realize what a pleasure it would be to me. It is true we find our greatest pleasures in doing for others. I knew the Rebekahs throughout the state would respond to the call, but little did I think that they would do as they have done. The fund for this is now beyond my fondest hope, and to you, who have so generously given, I wish to thank you.

The names of all who gave enough to furnish a room ($100.00) and the ones donating $50.00 or more will be placed on a tablet in the building when completed.

“ ‘Go give to the needy sweet love’s bread,
For giving is living, the Angel said.
And must I be giving, again and again!’
My pitiless and peevish answer ran.
‘Oh no,’ said the Angel, piercing me through and through.
‘Just give till the Master stops giving to you.’ ”

All money received by me for other purposes was sent to the proper place and the names of all who donated toward this fund for the hospital follow:

MARY E. KELLOGG DONATION

As it was the request of the late Sister Mary E. Kellogg, Past President of the Rebekah Assembly, that some donation from her estate be made to the I. O. O. F. Homes at Mason City, her husband, Geo. M. Kellogg, turned over five hundred dollars ($500.00), said amount to be used in fitting up an operating room in the hospital, when built. This money to be used for no other purpose unless the consent of Brother Kellogg be given to do so.

TEN PER CENT COMMISSION HONOR ROLL

It is indeed pleasing to be able to place so many lodges on the Honor Roll as lodges having ten per cent of their members holding commissions to instruct in the Unwritten Work. And as this is the first time on record that all commissions must be 100 per cent this record is more than pleasing.

I wish to thank the members of the Board of Instruction for their efforts in helping to make this year's work one hundred per cent along this line.

And I also wish to thank the Past Presidents for the many names sent to me recommending sisters as 100 per cent perfect, and asking me to issue commissions for same.

I especially wish to thank Sisters Julia Tierney, of Ottumwa, and Olive Kissinger, of Washta, who gave so much of their time in this work, and to the many other sisters over the state I wish to thank you for helping to make this a "True Honor Roll Year."

Following is the list of Rebekah lodges in which ten per cent or more of the members hold commissions to instruct in Secret Work:

SUGGESTIONS

1. That the Secretary of each lodge keep a roll of the Past Noble Grands and a record of their attendance.

2. That the first night after installation of officers in each term, be known as "Instruction Night." The Noble Grand on her night of installation shall appoint a Past Noble Grand as instructor. Said instructor shall read or cause to be read pages 7, 9, 10 and 13 of the Ritual. And shall also instruct all elective and appointive officers in their line of work for the term. She shall also organize a class for the study of the Unwritten Work.

3. That the state be divided into districts, and the President, Vice President and Warden be required to visit and instruct the lodges. The visits to be so arranged that the officers would visit a different district each year.

4. Whereas the Rebekah lodges of Iowa, at the present time have no regular form for balloting, and as there have been many requests for same, and believing it would be to the best interest of the lodge to have such, I would suggest the following be adopted:

Form for Balloting

After the report of the Investigating Committee has been read, the same accepted and placed on file, and the committee discharged, the Noble Grand shall instruct the Warden to prepare the ballot box. The Warden and Conductor will advance to the chair of the Noble Grand, the Conductor facing the Vice Grand's station, and the Warden will then place the box on the Noble Grand's pedestal for her to inspect. After this is done, the Warden will face the Vice Grand's station and there remain until the Noble Grand shall give the admonition. (Section 12, paragraph 2). The Noble Grand calls up the lodge, and shall then say, "Sisters and brothers, you are about to ballot upon the application of (give name of applicant) for membership into this lodge. Remember that white balls elect and black balls reject. Be careful of your ballot."

(As the ballot box must be in sight of the Noble Grand and Vice Grand at all times, I recommend the following line of march):

Music starts, Warden and Conductor marching to the center of the room. The Conductor removes the Bible to the Chaplain's station. The Warden will then place the ballot box on the altar and then the Conductor and Warden will take their station facing the Vice Grand, about six feet from the altar and about six feet from each other. The Noble Grand leaves her station, goes to the right and marches down the side of the room to the Vice Grand's end of the hall, turning at the corner and proceeding diagonally to the altar, where she will ballot, turns to the right and marches back to her station. The Vice Grand, as soon as the Noble Grand has voted, will then leave her station, turn to the right going to the corner of the room and then proceeding diagonally to the altar where she will ballot, after which she will turn to the left, towards the Chaplain's station, and continue down the side of the hall to her own station.

Then the line of march will be led by the Right and Left Supporters of the Noble Grand, who shall pass down on their respective sides of the hall to the Vice Grand's end of the hall, turning at the corners and proceeding diagonally to the altar, where they alternate in balloting, the Right Supporter to the Noble Grand balloting first. After balloting they turn to the right and to the left to the Past Noble Grand's station and to the Chaplain's station, and then to their own respective stations. Then the musician will leave her station, march down the side of the room in front of the Chaplain's station, cross to the altar and after balloting, shall return to her station. Then the Conductor shall about face and proceed to ballot and take her station facing the Chaplain's station about two feet from the altar, and then the Warden proceeds to ballot and she will then take station facing the Past Noble Grand, about two feet from the altar.

When all have voted the Noble Grand shall say, "Have all voted?" (For all must vote unless excused by the lodge) "If so, I declare the ballot closed." (using gavel). The Noble Grand and Vice Grand shall then leave their respective stations, marching down the sides of the room until the Noble Grand is in front of the Past Noble Grand's station and the Vice Grand is in front of the Chaplain's station, and then they will face each other and march to the altar where they shall inspect the ballot. The Noble Grand and Vice Grand will return to their stations by the same line of march.

The Noble Grand shall then ask the Vice Grand how she found the ballot? The Vice Grand shall respond by saying, "Noble Grand, I found the ballot favorable" (or unfavorable, as the case may be) and the Noble Grand shall say, "I, too, found the ballot favorable (or unfavorable, as the case may be). By your ballot you have (elected or rejected) (name) to become a member of this lodge by (initiation, card or reinstatement)."

The Warden removes the ballot box, the Conductor returns the Bible to the altar and then the Conductor and Warden march up the center of the room to the Noble Grand's station. The Warden places the ballot box on the pedestal and then the Noble Grand shall destroy the ballot. Then the Warden returns the ballot box to the Secretary's desk. The Warden and Conductor are then seated.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that Article 4, Section 2 of Rebekah Assembly Constitution be amended by adding the words "one who is a faithful and regular attendant and who has attended her own lodge a majority of the meeting nights the year preceding her election." When so amended to read as follows:

Section 2. The basis of representation in each district shall be one delegate for every 300 members; provided, however, that each district shall have at least one delegate. Said delegate shall be a resident of the district from which she is elected, one who is a faithful and regular attendant and who has attended her own lodge a majority of the meeting nights in the year preceding her election. Delegates shall be elected for term of two years; odd-numbered districts shall elect delegates in odd-numbered years, and even-numbered districts shall elect delegates in even-numbered years.

I recommend Section 12, Paragraph 3, of the Rebekah Lodge Constitution, be amended by changing the last sentence to read as follows:

After the ballot is declared closed by the Noble Grand, the same shall be examined by the Noble Grand and Vice Grand together at center of room. The Noble Grand and Vice Grand return to their stations and report the ballot, after which the Noble Grand shall destroy the ballot.

Section 12, Paragraph 3, shall then read as follows:

In balloting for members, the ballot box must be inspected by the Noble Grand, after which it shall be placed near the center of the hall, in full view of the Noble Grand and Vice Grand; but one member shall approach the same at a time. After the ballot is declared closed by the Noble Grand the same shall be examined by the Noble Grand and Vice Grand together at the center of the room. The Noble Grand and Vice Grand return to their stations and report the ballot, after which the Noble Grand shall destroy the ballot.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As I come to the last leaf in this volume that is soon to close on my year's work, as your President, I feel it would not be complete if I were to neglect to express my appreciation to the sisters and brothers throughout the state, for their loyalty and devotion to me. It is you who have made this one real year of Odd Fellowship. I would here like to make mention individually of the different brothers and sisters throughout this beautiful state of ours, who at every turning of the road, stood ready to help me forward with my load.

For the kind words of commendation and encouragement, the love and esteem that has been shown, the beautiful gifts and fragrant flowers that have been showered upon me, I am truly grateful. The kind words shall in memory never die. The beautiful gifts I shall ever treasure; and the flowers, their sweet fragrance shall ever linger with me as a reminder of my associations with you as your President.

To my co-workers, Sisters Maude Bunker, Nellie Hazlett, S. Elizabeth Matheney and Lena Millin: You stood ever ready and willing to give your time to help to lighten the weight and responsibilities of this office. I thank you for your loyal support and may the year of 1922-23 bring as many loyal workers and helpers to our incoming President, Sister Maude Bunker; I could wish for nothing more. My faithful quartet has ever been ready to go and do for the good of the Order when called upon and often do much at their own expense.

The counsel and advice of our Secretary, S. Elizabeth Matheney, was most graciously received; her cheering and helpful words have given strength to me. I appreciate your help.

To my appointive officers, you have my love and appreciation. If I have proven true, much of the credit belongs to you for your loyalty to me.

District Deputy Presidents, the Order as well as your President owes you much. Your aid in carrying on this work in our Order means much. No task has been too great for you to undertake. Your services rendered have been most valuable. I feel that I voice the entire membership of the Order when I say: "We appreciate every effort put forth. You have our most sincere thanks."

To my home lodges, Menlo and Stuart, who gave me beautiful gifts and flowers and most of all, their loyal support, I most sincerely thank you.

"I'd like to be the sort of a friend that you have been to me,
I'd like to be the help you've always been glad to be;
I'd like to mean as much to you, each moment of the day,
As you have meant, dear friends of mine, to me along the way.
I'd like to do the big things and the splendid things for you,
I'd brush the gray from out the sky and only leave the blue;
I'd like to say the kindly things, that I so oft have heard,
And feel that I could rouse your soul, the way you mine have stirred.

And could I have one wish this year, this only would it be,
That I could be the kind of friend, that you have been to me."

And to my county, Guthrie county, one of the best in the state, I heartily thank every brother and sister, for gifts of silver and flowers but most of all, for your loyal devotion and ever untiring efforts to make your President's year one of the best. For your splendid donation to the Hospital Fund, your efforts in trying to put all lodges on the Honor Roll, the organization of our county convention, all of this I have noted with pride. The loyal support of every subordinate lodge, as well, throughout the county has truly been life to me.

To the Stuart Canton, No. 37, I do appreciate your act of kindness in recommending that I be given the Decoration of Chivalry, and later, purchasing the beautiful jewel presented to me; I thank you. This honor, I feel, came through your love and esteem for my husband, and for this I am more than appreciative. I shall ever cherish the gifts as an honor to him as well as myself.

To S. C. Paschal, Grand Patriarch, and his co-workers; Major General O. H. Sweeney and staff, I appreciate your many acts of kindness.

The Home Trustees, Advisory Board and Board of Instruction, I thank you for help along all lines of the work and your ever willingness to help me at all times.

To L. W. Smith, Grand Secretary, and his assistants, Sister Catherine Davis and Brother W. A. Merriam, I truly appreciate your ever willingness to give me of your time and help. Your prompt response at all times, to all questions and your ever willingness to help assist in the work has been great help to me.

Brother Thos. Dustin, the proficient manager of the Iowa Odd Fellow, is deserving of most sincere gratitude. He, it is, that keeps before the readers of this splendid magazine worth while things of our Order and keeps us in touch with each other so the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are made to feel that they are like one big family by reading the splendid letters and communications. This magazine has been a wonderful power in the advancement of our work.

The Past Presidents, Past Grand Masters and other Past Officers, you will never know of my appreciation of your loving service to me. I cannot express it in words. The following will express my thoughts, in part.

"Some one like you that stands steadfastly near me,
Knows me and likes me for just what I am,
Some one like you who knows just how to cheer me,
Some one who's real without pretense or sham.
Some one whose fellowship isn't a fetter,
Binding my freedom, who's loyal all through;
Some one whose life in this world makes it better,
Blest to me, best to me, some one like you."

Grand Master Lynn J. Irwin; he needs no words. He knows best how I appreciated every effort put forth to make our branch of the Order one of the best. Our Order is fortunate to have such a leader. One who gave of his time and strength to make it one of the best. The brothers and sisters throughout the state are proud of our "Boy Grand Master."

To the faithful wife of our Grand Master, Sister Minnie, I truly appreciate the many acts of kindness, the effort put forth to assist in every way in doing your part. I fully realize the many sacrifices made to help, not only in your husband's work, but in the Rebekah Branch of the Order.

To my sister, brothers and their families who have stood by my side in joy and sorrow, given words of encouragement and praise, and to the faithful one, my husband, the Odd Fellow who has made it possible for the Rebekahs of Iowa, to have so much of my strength and time in the work of the past years; it has been his loyalty and devotion that has been my inspiration to make this administration one of the best; to you one and all, you who know and love me best, I have nothing to say but this, I am coming home, to take up the duties which one year ago you so willingly assumed.

CONCLUSION

I shall ever cherish the friendship of the brothers and sisters. To have served you one short year has been untold pleasure and I shall feel well repaid for the hours spent in this splendid organization.

"If only a sunbeam has been made to shine
In someone's life from words of mine,
If only some heart has been less sad
And from my work, some help been had,
Then the way has not been too long nor dreary,
No task too hard, though the body grew weary,
And the love you gave me has brightened the way
And furnished me strength from day to day."

Sincerely and fraternally,

Wanner Reed Buckley

President.

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

In accordance with the requirements of my office I herewith submit my report as Vice President of this Assembly.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE

The reports of the Grand Sire, Grand Secretary, Adjutant General and Grand Treasurer were late in reaching this office so we are able to give only a hurried review of the work of these officers.

From the Grand Sire's report we quote the following:

There is a wholesome activity in all branches of our work. Our sisters of the Rebekah degree are especially active and are demonstrating more and more their fidelity to our principles and their capacity to enter fully into the benevolent and educational features of our work. Our Homes continue to grow in efficiency and usefulness and to fulfill the benevolent purposes designed for them.

From the Grand Secretary's we quote from Sister Matheney's report to that office as follows:

We are glad to report continued prosperity in our state in the Rebekah degree work. Our report for 1921 showed a gain in membership of 4,733. Since our last Assembly meeting we have seven new lodges, with all our lodges making a report and paid in full, the per capita tax.

We attribute much of our success to the good fellowship existing between all of the branches of the Order.

As usual all eyes are turned toward our I. O. O. F. Homes at Mason City—each one interested in the welfare of the children and the old people. Our President is not only interested in our work in general, doing all in her power to promote the interest in our branch of the work, but she has taken upon herself to interest the members in preparing a hospital for the Homes and soliciting for the same. Before another year we hope to realize our anticipations in having the Old Folks Home enlarged with a hospital therein.

We glean the following statistics from the Grand Secretary's report:

AMOUNTS PAID FOR RELIEF BY REBEKAH LODGES FOR THE YEAR 1921

Paid for relief of members.....	$ 52,412.19
Paid for relief of widowed families.....	5,690.94
Paid for relief of orphans.....	38,843.93
Paid for education of orphans.....	27,250.75
Paid for special relief.....	59,599.52

Total paid for relief.....$183,797.33

Of this amount there was paid by Iowa the sum of $9,284.58, ranking fifth in the amount paid for relief.

Let us pause for a moment to honor the memory of Grand Sire Oliver, who has passed to his reward. It was our privilege to have him with us only two short years ago and the memory of his gracious presence lingers with us still. "Peace to his ashes."

Legislation Affecting the Rebekah Branch of the Order

As the Journals of Proceedings of The Sovereign Grand Lodge did not reach this office we are indebted to Brother Thos. Dustin, Grand Reporter of the Grand Lodge, for a hasty glance through his copies on the last day before this report must be in the hands of the printer.

From this hasty review we glean the following:

The Representatives from Iowa were assigned to the following committees:

Miscellaneous Business.....	F. F. Wunder, P. G. P.
Odd Fellows Homes.....	Geo. A. Butcher, P. G. P.
Mileage and Per Diem.....	J. M. Hazlett, P. G. M.
Judiciary.....	F. F. Rodgers, P. G. M.

We also note the appointment of Past Grand Master E. W. Cutting as Grand Guardian of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for the ensuing year.

Association of Rebekah Assemblies

The committee to whom was referred the resolution for the recognition of the Association of Rebekah Assemblies as an integral part of Odd Fellowship reported at length and presented a resolution legalizing the acts of this body. The resolution was made a special order of business and after a few amendments the report was adopted.

Representatives Davis, of Washington, presented a Constitution for the Association of Rebekah Assemblies, I. O. O. F., which was adopted after a few amendments had been favorably considered.

Assembly Installation Ceremony

The report of the special committee on Rebekah Assembly Installation Ceremony, was considered and adopted, and the Grand Sire was empowered to appoint a special committee of three to serve until the next session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, which committee was to be empowered to revise the Rebekah Assembly Installation Ceremony and report at the next session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge. The committee to be appointed by the Grand Sire was also authorized to arrange for a public service if it be deemed advisable.

Rebekah Lodge Legislation

A new section was added to the transfer law providing for the completion of the transfer of a member from one lodge to another by attaching a stub to the certificate now provided, which shall be filled in and returned to the lodge issuing the transfer certificate when the member shall have signed the Constitution of the lodge receiving such certificate.

Section 6, of the Rebekah Degree Code, relating to the qualifications for membership was amended by amending sub-section (2) of said Section 6 by inserting after the word "Odd Fellows" in the first line of said sub-section the following: "of the Degree of Truth," so that the said section when amended shall read as follows:

Section 6. The persons herein specified shall be eligible to membership in a Rebekah lodge of this Order, subject to the laws relative to residence of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and of the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction in which application is made; and conditioned further that all female applicants shall be white women who have attained the age of eighteen years (except that the said age limit shall not apply to applicants who are the wives of Odd Fellows), who believe in a Supreme, Intelligent Creator and Ruler of the Universe, and who are of good moral character.

(1) All persons who have received the Rebekah degree.

(2) All Odd Fellows of the Degree of Truth in good standing, their wives, daughters, sisters and mothers. Also the daughters, sisters and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of the Order.

(3) All unmarried white women.

(4) In jurisdictions not on the Continent of North America, all white females over twenty-one years of age shall be eligible to admission.

The next session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge is to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio.

VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY, I. O. O. F. OF IOWA

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

To the Delegates to the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F.:

Dear Sister: You have been elected delegate to represent the lodges in your district at the thirty-fifth annual session of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa, to be held at Iowa City, Iowa, October 17-18-19, 1922, and as such I extend to you Fraternal Greetings.

Your duties, as found in the Rebekah Assembly Constitution, Article IV, Section 7, Paragraphs 3 and 4, are as follows:

3. It shall be the duty of each delegate to request from each lodge in her district a list of its deceased members; also its instructions, if any, to the Assembly. Such instructions must be made by said lodge in ample time before the meeting of the Assembly. All instructions to be made in writing.

4. It shall also be the duty of the delegates to make a report to each lodge in their district upon their return from the Assembly, and to make a brief report to the President, stating the needs and conditions of each lodge visited.

Come prepared to give your time and attention to the daily sessions, that you may be able to report to the lodges in your district the proceedings of the Assembly.

It is an honor to have been chosen to represent your district. You should repay the honor conferred on you by making this report to the lodges, complete, concise and interesting.

Many lodges complain that they have not received this report. Sister Delegate, do not shirk this duty; "freely you have received, freely give."

One of the important duties of your office is to assist in selecting the District Deputy President for your district. You will confer with the other delegates (if any) and select a Past Noble Grand who is qualified and who is willing to devote the necessary time to this important office, and who will be ready at all times to assist the President if called upon.

Consult the Past Noble Grand whom you have selected and if she will accept the office, please fill in and return to me the enclosed post card, not later than September 1st. Do not delay. This is important.

If for any reason you cannot be present at the annual session in Iowa City, October 17-19, you should immediately notify the President, Nannie Buckley, Stuart, Iowa, that your place may be filled and your district represented.

Sincerely and fraternally,

MAUDE BUNKER,

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend the following change in the Rebekah Assembly Constitution.

No. 1. Amendment to Article IV, Section 8, Paragraph 4.

Amend said paragraph by inserting after the word "elective," the words "and appointive," the paragraph when amended to read:

4. Elective and appointive officers to be installed not otherwise provided with mileage and per diem, shall receive mileage and one day per diem.

I recommend the following changes in the Rebekah Lodge Constitution:

No. 2. Statement: The following amendments to Section 43 and 44, Rebekah Lodge Constitution, transferring certain duties from the Financial Secretary to the Recording Secretary are submitted in order to make the Constitution conform to the Ritual.

Amend Section 44 by striking out Clause V.

No. 3. Amend Section 43 by inserting the following as Clause X:

Section 43, Clause X. To make out a semi-annual report and annual report to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, in such form as may be directed. Said report shall be read in open lodge at the first regular meeting in July and January; and when duly approved by the lodge, and signed by the proper officers, forward one copy, together with the per capita tax (fifteen cents a member) thereon, to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, and file a duplicate among the records of the lodge. When notified by the Secretary of the Assembly of an error in said report, he or she shall promptly respond and supply such information as will enable that officer to make the proper correction.

Any Rebekah lodge failing to report and pay tax for a year shall be deemed an extinct lodge, and the Grand Master is empowered to take up the charter of same.

No. 4. Statement. The following amendment to Section 90 of the Rebekah Lodge Constitution is submitted in order to make the Constitution conform to the Code.

Amend Section 90 by striking out the word "dues" and substituting therefor the words "all sources." The section to read, when amended, as follows:

Section 90. Contingent Fund. This lodge may at its discretion, set aside ten per cent of its receipts from all sources as a contingent fund, from which may be paid any legitimate and necessary expenses, but which cannot be paid out of the general fund under the provisions of Section 89 hereof.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As we close the report of the work of this office we desire to thank all those who have assisted us. We especially thank the President for the privilege of attending so many conventions, thereby giving us preparation for the coming year, and for her many courtesies to us throughout the year.

To the Grand Master, who has so efficiently and kindly answered our many questions, and to General Sweeney, who made our stay at P. M. Park so pleasant, our thanks are given.

I also desire to thank the members who made it possible for this high honor to be mine.

CONCLUSION

As I conclude my report as Vice President, and stand on the threshold of another year in which I will serve you as President, I am not unmindful of the grave responsibilities that will be mine, but I am assured that you will give to me the same loyal support that you have given to my predecessors and with this assurance I take up the work of the office.

"The year is closed the record made,
The last deed done, the last word said,
The memory alone remains
Of all its joys, its griefs, its gains
And now with purpose full and clear
I turn to meet another year."

"I cannot see the course my ship must take
But looking back, I trace its shining wake
Illumined with God's love, so on I go
In perfect trust that He the course doth know."

Fraternally submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Maude Bunker". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

Vice President.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

---

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

In compliance with Article VI, Section 4, No. 10, we have compiled as complete and concise a report as possible for your consideration and approval.

It is always our thought to go into the work, in such a manner that it will be readily understood by all without misrepresenting anything or overdoing.

We have always been very anxious to not exaggerate or withhold anything; but to give to our members the facts and true condition of our workings.

CONDITION AND GROWTH

Our work seemingly is progressing nicely notwithstanding the unrest manifested in everything and on every hand. Our Rebekah lodges never responded better in making reports and paying the tax in less time. In January every lodge reported and paid tax. In July all reported but one and all paid per capita tax but one.

IOWA CITY

We are here for our first meeting in this college city. Much has been promised by Iowa City as an inducement for this visit, consequently much expected. We feel sure we shall not be disappointed, but return to our various homes believing that "Iowa City" should be spelled in larger capital letters on the map where everyone can locate it easily, after learning where so much is done for unfortunate children and humanity in general.

JOURNALS

The Rebekah Assembly Journal of Proceedings of the sessions held in Des Moines, October 18-20, 1921, was issued to the Rebekah lodges December 16, 1921.

Again, if any member or Rebekah lodge, entitled to a Journal, fails to receive same please write to the Secretary at once.*

Through the courtesy of Grand Secretary J. Edw. Kroh, we were furnished Journals of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for 1921 sufficient to supply our elective officers. We certainly appreciate the same and take this time to express our thanks.

Journals from other jurisdictions were received as follows and forwarded to Olive Kissinger, Chairman of Committee on Inter-State Correspondence; she in turn mailed them to her co-worker, Lizzie Broom:

Alabama	Louisiana	Ohio
Arizona	Maine	Oklahoma
Arkansas	Massachusetts	Oregon
British Columbia	Michigan	Pennsylvania
California	Minnesota	Quebec
Colorado	Missouri	Saskatchewan

Connecticut	Montana	South Dakota
District of Columbia	Nebraska	Tennessee
Florida	Nevada	Vermont
Georgia	New Hampshire	Virginia
Illinois	New Jersey	Washington
Indiana	New Mexico	West Virginia
Idaho	New York	Wisconsin
Iowa	North Carolina	Wyoming
Kentucky	North Dakota

BOUND JOURNALS

Owing to the fact that our representation was reduced, we contracted for only 300 bound Journals this year, believing this would be sufficient.

REPORT BLANKS

On December 8, 1921, the annual report blanks, together with bond blanks, Past Noble Grand certificates and return envelopes, were mailed out to the Secretary of each lodge.

On June 16, 1922, the semi-annual report blanks, together with bond blanks, Past Noble Grand certificates and return envelopes and also return envelopes for election of state officers, were mailed out to the Secretary of each lodge.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ELECTION RETURNS

Officers of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa, elected for the Year 1923

To the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

The report blanks, ballots and return envelopes were mailed out by the Assembly Secretary in sealed envelopes as first-class mail to the Recording Secretaries of each Rebekah lodge in the state early in May as per instructions in Rebekah Assembly Constitution, Article V, Sections 3 and 4.

As provided by law the Secretary of the Assembly called to her assistance Odelia Walsmith and Emma Schultz, both Past Noble Grands of Colfax Rebekah Lodge, No. 4, Keokuk, Iowa, who met on the fourth Tuesday in June (June 27th) and canvassed the vote which was received from four hundred and eight Rebekah lodges.

Three hundred and sixty-three correct reports were tabulated by committee.

Nos. 5, 9, 20, 42, 54, 55, 75, 76, 78, 79, 104, 111, 113, 143, 145, 146, 147, 158, 173, 222, 224, 231, 252, 261, 277, 285, 290, 302, 307, 340, 350, 359, 384, 402, 411, 421, 447, 453 486, 537 and 586 were returned for correction.

Nos. 21, 167, 381, 387, 409, 480, 490 and 517 were thrown out for not meeting requirements of the law.

After adjournment of committee, Nos. 151, 164, 247, 415 and 556 were received, losing forty-six votes for the candidates.

The committee reconvened in fourteen days and made final count July 11, 1922.

Out of the forty returned for correction all were returned in time to be in the final count, but Nos. 146, 402, 411 and 453, losing twenty-three votes for candidates.

All ballots, report blank and return envelopes are mailed in sealed envelopes to the Secretaries, consequently but few fail to reach their destination. When a Rebekah lodge fails to receive enough ballots, have your secretary write at once to this office for more. At any time if the ballots are not sufficient in number to vote on the night of election, make some ballots rather than miss any votes. Remember all ballots used should be retained by the lodge for reference in case any question comes up as to number of votes cast. We feel our work as to election of state officers is improving each year and we wish to congratulate the membership upon the same.

Yours fraternally,

S. ELIZABETH MATHENEY,
ODELIA WALSMITH,
EMMA SCHULTZ,

Committee.

This session at Corydon was especially pleasing, as great preparation was made for our coming and the convention in connection was one of the largest of the year. Great interest was manifested throughout in the instructions and demonstrations of the work.

The Secretary displayed the charter, legalizing the session and all were pleased over this being the largest class instructed in the work for the year.

Here we found quite a number who had the Assembly degree and were ready to assist us in the work.

We were rejoiced to find our Rebekah degree work in such fine condition in this county and shall always remember the sisters for their cordial welcome and painstaking efforts to make the event a great success.

Over two hundred sat down to a six o'clock banquet, and later we were given a drive over the city and visited the beautiful park at Corydon—the pride of every citizen.

Thirty-two members were present in the Assembly when the meeting opened and a very enthusiastic time was had.

After the President conferred the Assembly degree, it was demonstrated and explained, all taking part and asking questions, manifesting much interest.

In this meeting were President and Secretary, also Warden-elect Prudence Warner.

September 29, 1922, was a gala day in Moulton, this meeting being a joint one of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, consequently largely attended.

We were glad for the privilege of meeting in the home town of Prudence Warner and were glad to learn how this county rejoices over the election of Prudence Warner as Warden of the Rebekah Assembly.

The Rebekahs of this convention donated $27.50 to the Hospital Fund, and in the joint meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, a collection of $22.50 was taken; consequently District No. 4, Appanoose county, donates enough for furnishing a room in the hospital.

LOSS BY FIRE

On January 26, 1922, Rosella Rebekah Lodge, No. 177, of Hampton, lost all lodge property by fire.

On February 7, 1922, Canterbury Bells Rebekah Lodge, No. 506, of Gray, lost their hall and all their lodge property by fire.

Again we would urge all our Rebekah lodges to insure their property be it great or small; in so doing you will not be as much embarrassed as if you were without insurance.

We offer the following resolution to be known as Standing Resolution No. 61:

61. That hereafter each Rebekah lodge in the State of Iowa be required to carry insurance to the amount of one-half (at least) of the value of their property.

AMENDMENTS TO ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTION

The following amendments to the Rebekah Assembly Constitution were submitted by Marie Hartman, Lou Murray, Frances Adams, Lizzie Ault, Jeanie A. Lucus, Lulu Hyatt, Hannah Whaley and Celia Wilson, delegates from District No. 77:

Amend the Rebekah Assembly Constitution by striking out Section 8 of Article V and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 8. The President shall receive eight hundred dollars per year salary; the Vice President shall receive fifty dollars per year; the Secretary shall receive fifteen hundred dollars per year, and the Treasurer shall receive fifty dollars per year. All elective officers shall be allowed stationery, postage and other necessary supplies of their office.

The sum of $400.00, or as much thereof as may be required for necessary traveling expenses shall be allowed the President. She shall also receive $100.00 for her office expenses.

Amend Section 3 of Article IV of the Rebekah Assembly Constitution, by adding the following:

"And further provided, That when a district is entitled to more than one delegate, it may be sub-divided, in such manner as the Rebekah Assembly may determine, to insure equitable representation to all parts of the district."

That when said Section 3 is so amended, it shall read as follows:

Section 3. Each county in the jurisdiction shall constitute a separate district; the counties of the jurisdiction to be arranged alphabetically and numbered accordingly, except and provided that when the membership of a county is or shall become less than the major fraction provided for in the last preceding section (2) said county shall be united with an adjoining county as one district, this to be determined by President, Vice President and Secretary; and further provided that when the membership of each of said counties so united in one district shall become entitled to a delegate as by last report preceding the election of delegates in such district the counties of said district so entitled shall be notified by the Secretary of the Assembly; and further provided, that when a district is entitled to more than one delegate, it may be sub-divided, in such manner as the Rebekah Assembly may determine, to insure equitable representation to all parts of the district.

AMENDMENTS TO REBEKAH LODGE CONSTITUTION

Statement: The following amendments to Sections 43 and 44, Rebekah Constitution, transferring certain duties from the Financial Secretary to the Recording Secretary are submitted by Celia Wilson, Marie Hartman, Lou Murray, Frances Adams, Lizzie Ault, Jeanie A. Lucas, Lulu Hyatt and Hannah Whaley, delegates from District No. 77, in order to make the Constitution conform to the Ritual:

Amend Section 44, Rebekah Constitution by striking out Clause V.

Amend Section 43, Rebekah Constitution, by inserting the following as Clause X:

X. To make out a semi-annual report and annual report to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, in such form as may be directed. Said report shall be read in open lodge at the first regular meeting in July and January, and when duly approved by the lodge, and signed by the proper officers, forward one copy, together with the per capita tax (fifteen cents a member) thereon, to the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, and file a duplicate among the records of the lodge. When notified by the Secretary of the Assembly of an error in said report, he or she shall promptly respond and supply such information as will enable that officer to make the proper correction.

Any Rebekah lodge failing to report and pay tax for a year shall be deemed an extinct lodge, and the Grand Master is empowered to take up the charter of the same.

The following amendment to the Rebekah Lodge Constitution is presented by Secretary S. Elizabeth Matheney:

Amend Sec. 49 by adding after the word "thereof" in the fourth line, the following: "and shall see that all lodge property is insured as provided by law;"

So that said Section 49, when amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 49. Trustees—Duties Of. The Trustees shall have the general supervision and control of the funds and property of the lodge, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the By-Laws thereof; and shall see that all lodge property is insured as provided by law. They shall render a report on the first meeting night of January and July of each year, showing the amount and kind of property owned by the lodge, and a detailed statement of the investment of funds and securities taken thereunder.

FRATERNAL PRESS

Again we are in accord with the expression of our Secretary of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and quote him:

"Throughout the various jurisdictions there seems to be a growing tendency toward the liberal use of printer's ink, and from various sources come very creditable publications issued by subordinate lodges and of purely local interest, demonstrating the zeal and activity of subordinate lodge members in their respective localities. The larger publications published in the interest of Odd Fellowship generally or in the interest of their respective jurisdictions continue to wield a tremendous influence for good and are, without doubt, one of the greatest missionary agencies in the interest of Odd Fellowship. They should command and receive the support of the entire Order."

Again we would admonish our membership to consider patronizing our Iowa Odd Fellow as much of interest is found therein.

ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with profound sorrow that I announce to you and through you to the Odd Fellows of your jurisdiction, the death of our highly esteemed and beloved Grand Sire, Joseph Oliver, who died January 8, 1922.

J. EDW. KROH,
Grand Secretary.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge

I. O. O. F.

PROCLAMATION

To the Officers of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and all Grand and Subordinate Bodies, and to all Members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

It becomes my melancholy duty to announce that our beloved Grand Sire, Brother Joseph Oliver, died at his home in Toronto, Ontario, on Sunday morning, January 8, 1922. On the Tuesday afternoon following, amid scenes of profound and tender sorrow, shared alike by his fellow citizens and the brethren of the Order, his remains were laid at rest with the honors of the Order in the city he loved so well.

By this sad event our Order has lost at once its chosen guide and leader and a brother who reflected in his life and character its highest ideals. His country has lost a distinguished and useful citizen, his church a faithful and devout member and his family a tender and loving husband and father. In whatsoever circumstances of life he found himself, he met them with courage and honest vigor. He fought the good fight to the end, faithfully, earnestly, devotedly, and passed to his reward esteemed and loved by all who knew him.

In token of the deep sorrow which has fallen upon our hearts as Odd Fellows, and as a tribute of respect to the memory of our departed Grand Sire, it is ordered that the charters of all Grand and Subordinate bodies of the Order be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days from this date.

Done at St. Joseph, Missouri, this 12th day of January, A. D. 1922.

LUCIAN J. EASTIN,

Grand Sire.

Attest:

J. EDW. KROH, Grand Secretary.

CONCLUSION

There always comes a time when we are compelled to strike a balance and give a final report of our work.

This year we do not have any hesitancy about this as our work has not only held its own but shows considerable gain; and not only this, but we find conditions existing as of old—all branches of this great Order in Iowa on excellent terms; each not only interested in the success of the other but eager to assist each other.

This year has been a very strenuous one but nevertheless I have found the membership so ready and so willing to assist me that the work has been very pleasant and the cordial manner in which I have been received into the hearts and homes of our people makes my very heart rejoice for the confidence reposed in me. Let us be glad for our past success and may our deliberations here be such that we shall return to our homes with greater zeal for the advancement of our work—all doing our part and in unison—that the results of the coming year may be fraught with greater success if possible than ever.

Again I wish to recognize the courtesy shown me and thank you all sincerely from the very depths of my heart for your kindness to me.

Yours fraternally,

S. Elizabeth Mathewey

Secretary.

REPORT OF ADVISORY BOARD

A called meeting of the Advisory Board was held at Hotel Savery, Des Moines, October 21, 1921. Georgia Quigley, senior member of the Board, was elected chairman; Margaret Schechter, Secretary, and Emma Miller being the third member of the Board.

Mason City, Iowa, March 31, 1922.

The Advisory Board met in joint session with the Board of Trustees for conference on the many problems before us for the best interests of our Homes.

President of Rebekah Assembly, Nannie Buckley, spent the first day with us.

Saturday morning, April 1st, was spent shopping in Mason City and part of the necessary furnishings purchased.

The evening was given over for recreation in form of entertainment for all. Several selections were given by the children's orchestra. Grand Master Lynn J. Irwin was also with us and gave one of his splendid talks which was appreciated by all, both old and young. Brother John Scott, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, also spoke, giving assurance to all of his continued interest in our Homes.

Several songs by the girls and a boxing contest by the boys were enjoyed by all after which the children gathered in the parlor to meet Sister Emma Miller, who presented three pictures, purchased with money contributed by lodges, for the Children's Home.

Past Grand Master H. C. Ring sent a beautiful portrait of our Past President, Lena T. Ring, which was hung in the parlor of the Old Peoples Home.

The furnishings purchased and bills paid from Assembly funds will be found in Treasurer's report.

Georgia Quigley and Margaret Schechter being at camp at the P. M. Park, visited the Homes July 15th and found furnishings were needed for four rooms and the same were purchased, and bills paid from Assembly funds will be found in Treasurer's report.

Word from Superintendent A. W. Stubbs that four more rooms were being prepared in the Old Peoples Home, July 27th, Margaret Schechter visited the Homes and found furnishings were needed and the same were purchased and bills paid from Assembly funds will be found in Treasurer's report.

Mason City, Iowa, September 1, 1922.

The Advisory Board and the Board of Trustees met in joint session at the I. O. O. F. Homes and the welfare of our Homes in many phases was discussed. The Advisory Board are in accord with the Board of Trustees in recommending an addition to the Old Peoples Home and pledged to them the hearty co-operation of the Rebekah Assembly.

The afternoon was spent inspecting rooms of the Old Peoples Home and we found many rugs were needed. The members of the Advisory Board had the pleasure of meeting every resident of the Home. When we reached the hospital room we were saddened to know that one old brother could not greet us and a few moments later had passed to the Great Beyond.

After thorough investigation we found we could buy rugs direct from the wholesale house and the same were purchased. Bills for the same paid from Assembly funds will be found in Treasurer's report.

Miss Mercedes White was employed to teach school and music and Mrs. Loren Beck also as school teacher. All children above the fourth grade attend the Mason City schools.

After taking care of all needs known to us the Advisory Board adjourned its final meeting of the year.

Margaret Schechter, Secretary.

Georgia Quigley.

Emma Miller.

President's Supplemental Report

---

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

I hereby submit my supplemental report as President of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa:

In finishing the year's work a splendid record has been made, along all lines.

I wish at this time to make special mention of the two lodges of Iowa City, Carnation Rebekah Lodge, No. 376, and Iowa City Rebekah Lodge, No. 416, for their splendid help and assistance to me throughout the year and throughout the entire week of our Assembly meeting. Nothing was too hard or difficult for them to undertake, and my smallest wish was ever granted by them, and everything done for the comfort of their visitors. I am proud of you, Carnation and Iowa City Rebekahs, and I am only more than pleased to claim you as my lodges for the session of 1922. And I am glad to claim you, "Iowa City," one of the beauty spots of Iowa, with your wonderful churches, colleges and schools, your beautiful parks and magnificent homes, you can truly boast of being some city.

The expense connected with the President's office, I have tried in every way to keep as low as possible and also give of my time to the lodges needing help. You will note by the number of visits that it was close to the two hundred mark. I would not have been able to have made this number on the amount of money I did, if it had not been for the co-operation of lodges and conventions in allowing me to plan and arrange dates and the many favors received from sisters and brothers over the state. My traveling expense for the year just exceeded the five hundred dollars a little. You will get the exact amount in report.

And as the different lodges that put on the work for us, Carnation Rebekah Lodge, No. 376, of Iowa City; Iowa City Rebekah Lodge, No. 416, Iowa City; Praha Rebekah Lodge, No. 5, of Cedar Rapids, and Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, of Muscatine, donated all their work, we shall have the one hundred dollars that has been set aside for expenses of degree staff in putting on the work at Assembly to use for other purposes. And the amount left in the traveling expense will more than cover the price of the new typewriter and President's new trunk, that was purchased.

In my office expense, I exceeded the one hundred dollars a great deal, but this I have taken care of myself.

You will note by all the different collections of the different funds of the past year, our amount is over $5,700.00.

The fund for donations to the "Hospital" was left open and any individual, lodge, convention or district wishing to donate to this fund may do so. The following is the amount not placed in advance reports, but was all counted in on the Finance Committee's report up to October 16, 1922, making the collection, together with the interest $3,758.53. This amount does not include that received by Miss Matheney, Secretary.

GEO. M. PACKARD,
Secretary Rebekah Assembly of North Dakota.

Gravity, Iowa, October 15, 1922.

Miss S. E. Matheney, Secretary, Iowa City, Iowa:

My Dear Sister: Another year and duty makes it impossible for me to be with you in annual session of Rebekah Assembly. The disappointment is so great that at first I thought—I cannot give it up. I realize the loss is all mine. Mae joins me in sending greetings to each and every one of the members of the Assembly.

May you have a prosperous and harmonious session, and may the coming year be just as prosperous as the year past.

With love and best wishes to all.

THE ASSOCIATION OF REBEKAH ASSEMBLIES

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Williamston, Mich.

Miss S. Elizabeth Matheney, Secretary Rebekah Assembly, Keokuk, Iowa:

Dear Sister Matheney: The Association of Rebekah Assemblies sends fraternal greetings and best wishes to the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa in session. May you have a splendid session and a profitable year to come.

Recognizing the strength of the Association, the value of what it has already accomplished and what it may in the future do for the upbuilding of the Order, The Sovereign Grand Lodge, while in session at Detroit, granted to us a Charter and Constitution, defining our rights and privileges under The Sovereign Grand Lodge. We are now a central body of Rebekah Odd Fellowship, duly authorized to carry on the lines of work which have proved or shall prove to be of value to the Rebekah degree. Legislative powers were not asked for, nor does the charter grant them, but privilege is granted us to recommend through the Grand Sire any legislation we may deem to be for the good of the Rebekah degree. The full text of the committee report and of the Constitution may be found in the Daily Journal of Proceedings of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, to which we refer you.

With every good wish for the Order in your jurisdiction, and trusting that we may welcome you among us at our next meeting in Cincinnati, I am

JESSIE A. THOMPSON,
President.

This letter was referred to Committee on Constitution and By-Laws.

BOND OF THE SECRETARY

The Marshal and Conductor presented the following Past Presidents to the President: Amelia McPherrin, Lizzie B. Mathews, Belle Boyd.

The President introduced the Past Presidents to the members of the Assembly according to the years they were in service as President.

Much regret was expressed on account of the absence of Past President Alice Bellamy, who was detained at home, owing to the marriage of her daughter on October 19, 1922.

Each delegate was presented with a copy of the report of the Home Trustees.

CREDENTIALS

Maude Bunker, Vice President, was introduced by the President, and informed the new delegates that the certificate of election which they received this year will be their credential card for next year.

ANNOUNCEMENT

R. A. Washburn announced that at 1:15 a picture of the Assembly would be taken, including all delegates, visitors and officers, price of picture, one dollar, and desired that all congregate in front of the Masonic Temple.

CHAPLAIN INTRODUCED

The Chaplain, Flavia Hook, of Anita, was introduced by the President as eighty-two years "young."

Our Chaplain was a dear old sister, wonderfully bright for her years—so interested in all that was transpiring and remained at her office throughout the whole session. It was a joy to have her with us and to know of her interest in our work and the long years spent in the service of our Order.

We were delighted to see in the Evening Tribune, of Des Moines, of October 22, 1922, just following our session, a fine cut of Chaplain Flavia Hook, and commending her as the only living charter member of Juanita Rebekah Lodge, No. 206, and on her being Chaplain of the State Assembly.

NAMES FOR MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

Anna Woodmansee, Chairman of the Memorial Committee, was introduced as the sister of Past President Margaret Schechter, and the delegates requested to give names of deceased members of their lodges to the Chairman of Memorial Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO VISIT DEPARTMENT COUNCIL

The members of the committee were Alta Striker, P. P., Georgia Quigley, P. P., Harriett Stevenson, P. P., and Ida Van Hon, P. P.

Alta Striker, Chairman, reported as follows:

Your committee visited the Department Council before the close of the session, were graciously received and escorted into the room by a committee of uniformed brothers, presented to the General and were allowed to speak. General O. H. Sweeney asked General E. E. Lambert to respond to our message of greetings, and he spoke very nicely to us. General O. H. Sweeney spoke of the help that we had been to him at the P. M. Park; that we could not realize what the co-operation of the ladies meant to him; that the sisters had done so much to build up the Camp.

General O. H. Sweeney assured us that they were with us at all times in our work and thanked us very kindly for bringing greetings from the Assembly.

ADJOURNMENT

Upon motion of Lillie Becker, of Sioux City, the Assembly adjourned to meet at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Vice President Maude Bunker declared the Assembly adjourned to 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Meeting was opened by singing "America."

Marshal Blanche Dietrich reported all clothed in proper regalia and qualified to seats in the session.

Vice President Maude Bunker declared the Assembly legally open for business.

The President declared the Assembly open accordingly.

The President announced that Catherine Orr, of Iowa City, would take Julia Tierney's place as assistant to the Marshal, as the latter had been appointed delegate.

Past President Georgia Quigley stated that Josephine Dustin would not be present, owing to illness in the home, so Past President Leah Washburn was here to take subscriptions for the Iowa Odd Fellow or renewals.

Again the delegates were informed as to the envelopes for the Iowa Odd Fellow and cautioned to place full address on the envelope.

REPRESENTATIVES TO THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE

We were favored by a visit from the Representatives to The Sovereign Grand Lodge: F. F. Rodgers, Ames, and J. M. Hazlett, Mason City.

F. F. Rodgers was introduced by Past President Harriett Stevenson and J. M. Hazlett by Past President Leah Washburn.

They were received very cordially by the President.

Grand Representative F. F. Rodgers spoke on the meeting generally and gave us a glowing account of the manner in which they were entertained in Detroit, while Grand Representative J. M. Hazlett spoke on the legislation adopted affecting the Rebekah Degree, calling attention to some of the decisions of the Grand Sire as follows:

Grand Sire Oliver's decisions:

Decision No. 4. (Ky.)

Question—(1) Can a Rebekah lodge legally permit children of any age to attend the regular meetings of Rebekah lodge?

Answer—No.

Question—(2) And if any children can attend, at what age must they cease attending?

Grand Sire Eastin's decisions:

Decision No. 6. (Minn.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INTER-STATE CORRESPONDENCE

Olive Kissinger, Chairman of the Committee on Inter-State Correspondence, made report on the Homes as follows, which was adopted:

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

We, your Committee on Inter-State Correspondence, submit to you the following report pertaining to the Homes:

It was indeed a noble work begun when the Odd Fellows began to erect Homes for the old people and the children.

Today we find the Homes throughout the different jurisdictions in splendid condition. One of the greatest needs being more room. Most of the Homes are too crowded, and many are working and planning for additional room in the near future.

The Odd Fellows are supporting fifty-six Homes. Over 5,000 residents are cared for at a cost of $1,200,000 per year. The small contributions of the members of the Order amount to $1,000,000.

Reports from Sweden state that as a consequence of the war, 130 children were brought into this country from Central Europe and kept in private homes of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Practically all homes report good schools, moral and religious training and musical advantages.

Louisiana is the only exception where the children do not receive musical training. All except Rhode Island have libraries in the Homes.

The Rebekahs' work for the Homes has included raising funds for laundry, infirmary, Ford trucks, dairies, musical funds, invalid chairs, clothing, fruit, etc.

Lodges also have adopted residents of the Homes, to be remembered at birthdays and Christmas. The children have been entertained in private homes and camping trips arranged for them.

Nearly all jurisdictions that are without a Home are raising funds to build one. Denmark Homes are existing by private gifts. British Columbia has a Home fund of $14 137.

One good brother and his wife willed 240 acres of land, also their personal effects to the I. O. O. F. Home of Oklahoma.

Maine has no Home as yet, but land has been donated for one.

Amount paid for relief of orphans.....$38,843.93

Amount paid for education of orphans..... 27,250.75

At The Sovereign Grand Lodge session at Toronto the children from the Home appeared and sang, "The Home on the Hillside," which seems to me is very appropriate to our Home also.

"THE HOME ON THE HILLSIDE"

There's a Home on the crest of a hill
Broad acres established a throne,
Many sorrowing here find love and good cheer
Where the Odd Fellows care for their own.

Here's the refuge for old and for young
That a generous Order has made,
Where the old may remain and the young go again
For the conflict of life well arrayed.

God bless the great Home on the hill,
And guard it forever from ill,
May the years never cease, find friendship and peace,
In the Odd Fellow Home on the hill.

Oh, the welcoming Home on the hill,
Many hearts know the joy of its thrill;
May the angels above send the spirit of love,
To the Odd Fellows' Home on the Hill.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON UNFINISHED BUSINESS AND STATE OF THE ORDER

Ina Bennett, Chairman of the Committee on Unfinished Business, made the following report which was adopted:

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

We, your Committee on Unfinished Business and State of the Order, wish to report that we have carefully read the splendid reports of our officers and find the Order in excellent condition.

From the report of our President we find she has visited many lodges, conventions and Assemblies. Her manner of conducting the work of the convention was carried on in a different manner than has previously been done and which was very instructive and profitable to those present. She also impressed upon the minds of the Past Noble Grands the importance of their attendance at every session of the lodge and also to feel it their duty to be of service to others.

Eleven new lodges were instituted, three new conventions were organized and seven Special Sessions of the Rebekah Assembly I. O. O. F. of Iowa, were held.

The special work for the Homes this year was to raise a fund for furnishing rooms for the hospital and many lodges have responded liberally.

The President made the following good suggestions:

1. That the Secretary of each lodge keep a roll of the Past Noble Grands and a record of their attendance.

2. That the first night after installation of officers in each term, be known as "Instruction Night," a Past Noble Grand instructing all elective and appointive officers in their line of work for the term, and also to organize a class for the study of the Unwritten Work.

3. That the state be divided into districts and the President, Vice President and Warden be required to visit and instruct the lodges. The visits to be so arranged that the officers would visit a different district each year.

4. That we have a regular form for balloting and she outlines a very good form in her report.

The Vice President assisted the President in instituting new lodges, attending conventions and numerous lodge meetings and gave instruction and examination in the Unwritten Work whenever desired. In her report she quotes the following from the Grand Sire's report: "Our sisters of the Rebekah degree are especially active and are demonstrating more and more their fidelity to our principles and their capacity to enter fully into the benevolent and educational features of our work. Our Homes continue to grow in efficiency and usefulness and to fulfil the benevolent purposes designed for them."

From our Secretary's report we find that every Rebekah lodge reported in January and paid tax and in July all reported but two and all paid per capita tax but one. There are 138 Rebekah lodges on the Roll of Honor; Queen Rebekah Lodge, No. 106, of Mason City, remains the banner lodge for membership. From the Grand Secretary's report to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, we find that Iowa ranks fifth in membership. Many report blanks have been sent out during the year by the Secretary.

The Advisory Board met in joint session with the board of Trustees several times and the welfare of our Homes in many phases was discussed.

Under Unfinished Business, we would refer the following to their proper committees:

Page 154 of the 1921 Journal. The President's recommendation in regard to the proposed endowment fund, to the Finance Committee.

Page 173 of 1921 Journal. Amendment to Section 23 be referred to the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws.

We recommend that the precedent established in having Past Presidents on the Advisory Board be left as it is because they are best posted and know the needs of our Homes.

REPORT OF MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

Anna Woodmansee, Chairman of Memorial Committee, made the following report, which was adopted:

MEMORIAL REPORT

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

We, your Memorial Committee, wish to report that we have performed our duty and find that 149 sisters and 119 brothers have passed away during the past year.

To the many homes that have been bereft of loved ones we extend our sincere sympathy and point you to Him, "Who doeth all things well," as He knoweth best.

"For we cannot say and we will not say
That they are dead; they are just away;
With a cheery smile and a wave of their hand
They have wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since they linger there."

Fraternally submitted,

ANNA WOODMANSEE,
ADDA COOMES,
RACHEL MATHER,
BELLE BOYDE HETZEL, P. P.,
HELEN PRESCOTT, P. P.,
Committee.

After the report was adopted the President introduced Delegate Lilly Becker, of Sioux City, who spoke at length on the passing of Past President Mary E. Kellogg.

Past President Margaret Schechter then requested the Assembly to rise and a few moments were given to silent prayer, after which Sister Schechter spoke of our beautiful ceremony of draping the charter and expressed herself that each Rebekah lodge should use this, thereby showing respect for its members.

Then all joined in singing the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee."

Resolved, That the Outside Stenographer be allowed $5.00 per day for three days, the Reporter $5.00 per day for four days, and the Inside Stenographer $5.00 per day for five days.

Cora E. Chapin, Past President, introduced A. A. Montgomery, Past Grand Patriarch, who spoke to the Assembly at length, recalling the early days and the wonderful progress made in our state work.

In his remarks he advised us as to what the Grand Encampment had done in their session. In just a very short time $323.37 was raised on the floor for a moving picture machine for the Homes at Mason City.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES AND RESOLUTIONS

Margaret Schechter, Past President, made the following report which was adopted:

To the Officers and Members of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

We, your Committee on Courtesies, beg leave to report that we have obeyed the instructions of the Assembly and sent night letters to all absent Past Presidents. And we would submit for your consideration the following resolutions:

The thirty-fifth annual session of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa is deeply appreciative of the courtesies and hospitality extended by the hostess lodges. The arrangements have been comprehensive, and their administration effective.

The cordial welcome extended by those representing the city executives, service organizations and the administration of our University has been verified through continued courtesies. The entertainment afforded by talented musicians of the city was worth while and will be a treasured memory of our visit to Iowa City.

To the Masonic and fellow fraternities and churches who have extended the comfort and conveniences of their lodge and church homes, to those church societies who have made efforts to provide extra meal service for our accommodation and to those citizens who so graciously admitted us to their homes, we are most deeply grateful.

To the local press we are indebted for the unusual allotted space to reports and news of our sessions and for their enterprise in getting out the souvenir edition dedicated to the Grand Lodge of Iowa.

Recognizing that the efficiency of the local lodge is the determining factor in the success of the Order in the state, we are specially indebted to the degree staffs of Cedar Rapids, Muscatine and Iowa City for the exemplification of the beauties of our degree. The inspiration afforded will of necessity have a far reaching influence on the lodges of the state.

In conclusion your Committee on Courtesies recommends that through the publications of this Assembly and the local press, we say to these and every person who has contributed to the happiness and success of this session. Thank you.

Fraternally submitted,

HARRIETT STEVENSON, P. P., Chr.,

MARGARET SCHECHTER, P. P.,

MAYE COOPER,

Committee.

CORRECTION

Secretary S. Elizabeth Matheney corrected the error in her report as to Moulton furnishing a room in the hospital by donating $50.00, when it required $100.00 to do this. Members of Welcome Rebekah Lodge, No. 91, of Moulton, who were in the Assembly, expressed a desire for the fund to be left open and advised that their lodge would raise the other $50.00 in order that they go on record as furnishing a room in the hospital.

On motion of Lily Becker, the Donation Fund for the hospital was left open so that donations could be made at any time. Carried.

It certainly warms the heart of the officers to see how every undertaking entered into for the Homes meets with such hearty response.

PRESENTATION OF JEWEL

Past President Margaret Schechter stated:

At one time it was the pleasure of one of the Past Presidents to pin upon me the emblem of the Past Presidents, and it is a great pleasure to me this afternoon, Sister Buckley, to pin this upon you and name you as one of the Past Presidents of the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa. Your work this last year, no doubt, has been as much pleasure to you as it was to myself and to the many others who have been Presidents and may you enjoy wearing this beautiful jewel as I enjoy it.

Nannie Buckley responded:

A year ago I thought that the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had given me one of the highest honors, and I think this is just one step higher and I thank you for the honor and may I wear it so that its purity may never be blemished.

INVITATION

OPEN MEETING MONDAY EVENING

'Twas "welcome night," in truth, at the new hall of the science auditorium, when the opening meeting of the Grand Lodge was held in that spacious structure.

This was a program of entertainment and reception, coming to a climax with a hand-shaking, get-together, get-acquainted social session of brief type, as the throng filed out of the room.

Attorney G. A. Kenderdine officiated in a dual role, almost triple one. Between serious and sentimental utterances, as presiding officer, he injected a number of humorous and witty "digs," at his fraters, especially Grand Master Lynn J. Irwin, of Logan, Iowa, and Rev. Dr. C. Rollin Sherck, of Iowa City—to each of whom, however, he paid a tribute in earnestness.

In his second or third role, Mr. Kenderdine gave the address of welcome on behalf of the encampment.

Rev. Ira J. Houston was the chaplain of the hour, offering the invocation and pronouncing the benediction.

Enjoyable music won encores, when Miss Verness May Fraser gave a piano solo, and accompanied the vocalists as artistically, when Mrs. Mildred Paddock sang superbly; and Prof. Walter Leon "Heigh-Hoed" for the "Fair" delightfully.

PAST PRESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Past Presidents Association held their annual meeting in the Masonic Temple Monday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the year: Alta Striker, President; Cora E. Chapin, Vice President; Ida Van Hon, Secretary-Treasurer; Agnes M. Mercer, captain of Past Presidents' installation staff; Hattie E. Barquist, chairman of Flower Committee.

Past President Alta Striker, Vice President of the association, presided at the meeting in the absence of the President, Alice Bellamy.

DECORATION OF CHIVALRY

The Decoration of Chivalry was conferred on a class of fifty-four ladies on Tuesday evening at the men's gymnasium, by Major General O. H. Sweeney and staff and supporting canton, with Lieutenant Colonel Harry Schoppe as chief-of-staff.

Above, fluttering pennants of the I. O. O. F., and the unfurled Stars and Stripes gave the suggestion of the Odd Fellows' patriotism—love of country, as well as love of humanity and love of God being among their foremost qualities.

The exercises were fraught with interest and appeal throughout. The stately marches, the eloquent addresses, the inspirational dialogue, the pledges of fidelity to the cause of chivalry—to be exemplified by devotion to the highest principles of Odd Fellowship—these were phases of a most unusual program. To hear the white-robed novitiates solemnly promise to visit the sick; to relieve those in distress; to extend sympathy where sorrow, grief or suffering were with the stricken; to teach children to respect and obey parents—in fact to hear a score of promises that were symbolic of the best and noblest in life—all of these tended to win the admiration and the applause of the vast throng of onlookers who filled the two sides of the old-time armory, and paced its four-section balcony. It was a spectacle, in a word, not to be forgotten in many a day.

The Decoration of Chivalry, with its jewel and other emblems, and evidences of membership, is purely an honorary one.

It represents meritorious service in this or that branch of Odd Fellowship, and the chevalier or lady who receives it must have earned it. Hence the coveted decoration spells more than a layman can always understand to the honored recipient.

Those Who Officiated

Officiating in the beautiful ritual were the following prominent Odd Fellows and Rebekahs:

Major General O. H. Sweeney, Commanding Department, Waterloo.

Lieutenant Colonel E. E. Hill, A. A. G., Waterloo.

Lieutenant Colonel F. F. Wunder, Division Chaplain, Harlan.

First Lady Major—Mae Welch, Des Moines.

Second Lady Major—Leah Washburn, Mason City.

Third Lady Major—Alta Striker, Mason City.

Fourth Lady Major—Georgia Quigley, McGregor.

The white-robed wee ones, tiny aides-de-camp, were the following children:

Mary Lenore Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, Iowa City.

Betty Emmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Emmons, Iowa City.

Susanne Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Krueger, Iowa City.

"Mother in Israel" is Honored

Those who were honored included Mrs. Sarah E. Williams, a "mere child" of 75, who went to school with Major General Sweeney's father, long years ago, said that official in a pleasing, informal address.

Younger Women Decorated Too

The others, who must wait a long time before they are 75, or anything like it are as follows:

Grand Ball is Climax

The Decoration ceremonies were followed by a grand ball in the same big hall. The event was a delight to eye, ear and festive feet.

BANQUET OF LADIES OF THE DECORATION AND CHEVALIERS

The annual banquet of the Ladies of the Decoration, attended by officers and chevaliers in full dress uniform, with their ladies, was held in the dining room of the Burkley hotel Monday evening and was a delightful affair.

THE PARADE

Wednesday afternoon the big parade was led by the University band and the Patriarchs Militant in full dress uniform. The band of Jan Hus Lodge, No. 51, of Cedar Rapids, was awarded the $100.00 cash prize. Beautiful floats were prepared by Iowa City and Carnation Rebekah lodges, the Past Noble Grands Association, Ladies Auxiliary to Canton Iowa City, Eureka Lodge, No. 44, and Good Samaritan Lodge, No. 5. Among the marching members was the degree staff of Madrid Lodge, No. 433. There were over 4,000 members participating in the big demonstration.

The parade ended at the Methodist church, where the memorial services were held, program of which will be found in the Memorial section of the Journal.

REBEKAH DEGREE WORK

The Rebekah degree was exemplified Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Men's Gynnasium, by the staff of Praha Rebekah Lodge, No. 5, Cedar Rapids, and at a later hour by the staff of Iowa City Rebekah Lodge, No. 416, of Iowa City. The work was beautifully done and many words of praise were spoken for each staff.

The officers of Carnation Rebekah Lodge, No. 376, of Iowa City, opened and closed the lodge for the Praha Rebekahs and the officers of Iowa City Rebekah Lodge, No. 416, opened and closed for their own work.

The candidates who received the degree were: Mrs. Sarah Sheldon, Misses Jennie Vandervelt, Elsie Soss and Ollie Cloud.

The Praha degree staff carried small silk flags throughout the drill during which they executed many intricate formations, spelling the word "Praha," forming the Moon and Seven Stars, anchor, cross and the American Flag. During the cross formation they softly hummed "Nearer My God to Thee" and as the American Flag was formed, sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Several beautiful tableaux were formed showing the emblems of the Order.

The Iowa City staff gave a perfectly executed drill, in addition to their excellent exemplification of the degree, closing with a beautiful tableau.

Below is given the personnel of the degree staffs of the two Rebekah lodges conferring the degree, as well as the drill staff of Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 27, of Muscatine, which attired in pink and green gowns or robes, gave a prettily executed drill, forming the letters, "F., L. and T.," and presented a number of exquisite tableaux and figures:

PAST GRAND OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION

---

Iowa City, Iowa, October 18, 1922.

The Past Grand Officers' Association met in the dining room of the Hotel Jefferson, covers being laid for forty-nine members and guests.

Grand Chaplain Thos. Humphrey invoked the divine blessing.

After the banquet President J. H. Henderson called the meeting to order and made mention of the sadness caused by the passing of two valued members of the association—Brother Zala A. Church and Sister Mary E. Kellogg, and stated he felt some record, aside from the mere mention of the fact, should be made in the minutes, and he had asked Brother L. W. Smith, who was Grand Master during the year Sister Kellogg served as President of the Assembly, to speak of Sister Kellogg.

Brother Smith spoke regarding the splendid life and character of Sister Kellogg, and of the wonderful work accomplished, not only during her administration but during her entire membership.

Brother Henderson expressed the pleasure of the association in having the memorial, and extended to Brother Kellogg the sympathy of the members of the association.

Brother Stymest Stevenson, by request of Brother Henderson, spoke feelingly of his close association with Judge Church, and especially of the sterling worth of the man—his great devotion to home, county, state and nation, and the splendid work he had accomplished for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the fact that the Order could point with pride to the service of Brother Church.

Immediately following the remarks of Brother Stevenson all members of the association present stood in silence for a short time, thus honoring the memory of these two departed members.

On motion of Brother Wagner, Lynn J. Irwin was admitted to membership.

Sister Stevenson moved that Sister Buckley be admitted to membership, and that following the custom, Lynn J. Irwin be requested to pay her admission fee. The motion carried.

On motion of Brother Smith, S. C. Paschal was admitted to membership.

Brother Henderson said he had informed the candidates that a short speech would be expected from each of them and called on Brother Irwin who responded in his inimitable manner, expressing the pleasure he had derived from his service as Grand Master, and tendered his thanks to the members of the Past Grand Officers' Association for the assistance rendered during his administration.

Brother Henderson called attention to the fact that Brother Irwin was the youngest Grand Master ever elected in this state and Iowa was justly proud of its Grand Master and his efficient work.

On being called Sister Buckley addressed the association in her pleasing manner expressing the joy she experienced in becoming a member of this wonderful association of which she had heard so much and thanked Brother Irwin, the Past Presidents and other members of the Past Grand Officers' Association for assistance and encouragement given her during the past year.

Brother Paschal was then called upon and spoke for the encampment branch, expressing his gratification in becoming a member of the Past Grand Officers' Association and voiced his appreciation for the assistance and co-operation rendered to the encampment branch while he had the pleasure of serving as Grand Patriarch.

Attention was called to the fact that Brother E. W. Cutting had been appointed as Grand Guardian of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, and on being called upon Brother Cutting, in well chosen words, expressed the thought that the honor was not to himself but to the jurisdiction of Iowa.

Brother Henderson introduced Sister McPherrin, Vice President of the association who entertained the association with interesting remarks.

Brother Henderson next called on Sister Schechter stating that earlier in the week she had called on him for a speech and he was now returning the compliment.

Sister Schechter responded in her usual gracious manner, bringing a cheering message which was greatly appreciated.

Sister Chapin, being called upon, stated she had made several impromptu speeches during the session and asked to be excused.

Roll call found the following named officers and members present:

J. H. Henderson, President	F. F. Wunder
Amelia McPherrin, V. Pres.	S. C. Paschal
L. W. Smith, Secretary	Lizzie B. Matthews
Geo. M. Kellogg, Treasurer	Belle B. Hetzel

J. C. Koonz	Ida Van Hon
L. W. White	Cora E. Chapin
Stymest Stevenson	Alta Striker
E. W. Cutting	Hattie Barquist
H. F. Wagner	Helen Prescott
O. H. Sweeney	Allie Scott
C. E. Alexander	Harriett Stevenson
J. M. Hazlett	Josie F. Cutting

A. E. Hindorff	Georgia Quigley
C. W. Paschal	Leah Washburn
Lynn J. Irwin	Margaret Schechter
A. A. Montgomery	Emma Miller
Geo. P. Campbell	Nannie Buckley

The Secretary again called attention to the fact that a number of members had failed to send in autobiographies and photographs and asked those who had not done so to give the matter prompt attention.

Sister McPherrin stated that Sister Mary I. Richards was very ill, and on motion of Sister McPherrin a letter of greeting, from the association, was ordered sent to Sister Richards.

Brother Kellogg called attention to the illness of Brother J. C. Milner, and moved that a letter of sympathy be sent to Brother Milner. The motion carried.

On motion of Brother Wunder the Secretary was instructed to write a letter of sympathy to Brother N. Jasper Jones, who, because of illness, was unable to be in attendance at this meeting.

On motion of Brother Montgomery the Secretary was also instructed to convey the greetings of the association to W. E. Harriman, the oldest living Past Grand Master, who, because of his advanced years, was unable to be present.

Sister Striker spoke of Sister S. Elizabeth Nelson and moved that the Secretary be instructed to advise Sister Nelson of the regret occasioned because of her enforced absence from the meeting. The motion carried.

On motion of Sister Hetzel the Secretary was instructed to send a letter of greeting to Sister Carmichael.

On motion of Sister Hetzel a letter was ordered written to Sister Lydia Kreamer, who, because of her residence in a distant state, is unable to meet with us.

On motion of Sister Matthews a letter was ordered written to Sister Carrie T. Dimond, the first President of the Assembly, and a member of this association for many years.

On motion of Sister Cutting the minutes of the previous meeting were read, and, on motion of Brother Alexander, adopted.

Brother Geo. M. Kellogg, Treasurer, submitted the following report, which on motion was adopted:
To the Officers and Members of the Past Grand Officers' Association:

Herewith find report of your Treasurer for year ending October 18, 1922:

Cash on hand.....	$61.05

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. M. KELLOGG,
Treasurer.

After considerable discussion and suggestions from various members regarding arrangements for the next meeting, Brother Stymest Stevenson moved that the action of the present officers, in making preparation for this meeting be commended, and that they be re-elected and instructed to take care of the next meeting and banquet as they deem best. The motion was seconded by Brother Alexander and unanimously carried, and the following officers declared elected:

- J. H. Henderson.....President
- Amelia McPherrin.....Vice President
- L. W. Smith.....Secretary
- Geo. M. Kellogg.....Treasurer

Sister Cutting stated that Sister Moody was a Past Treasurer of the Assembly and eligible to membership in the association, and moved that she be accepted as a member upon payment of the required fee. The motion was seconded by Brother Stevenson and prevailed.

There being no further business to come before the association, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

Fraternally yours,
L. W. SMITH, Secretary.

Mary E. Kellogg, Past President

Eulogy by Agnes M. Mercer, Past President

Mary Edna Jackson was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, July 7, 1866. Died at her home in Sioux City, Iowa, December 26, 1921.

Sister Kellogg moved to Sioux City, with her parents, when five years of age where she resided until her death. She was married to Geo. M. Kellogg, January 28, 1885. She is survived by her husband, Past Grand Patriarch Geo. M. Kellogg, and one son, who have the sympathy of the entire membership.

Our sister joined the Rebekah lodge thirty-one years ago, soon becoming one of the very enthusiastic workers, and we also extend our sympathy to her home lodge in the loss of a valuable member.

We knew her best in the Assembly, and realize that in the passing of Sister Mary E. Kellogg the Rebekah Assembly of Iowa has lost one of the pioneers of the Order as well as a faithful Past President. We first knew her as a delegate to the Assembly at Davenport in 1897. Her untiring energy and enthusiasm in all things pertaining to the Order immediately placed her among the real workers. She served as delegate, on committees, in appointive offices and on the Board of Instruction until she entered the ranks of the elective officers in 1903 when she was elected Treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly.

She served faithfully and well in their turn as Treasurer, Warden, Vice President, and finally as President in 1907-8, followed by the customary three years as a member of the Advisory Board.

Thus briefly have we recalled the passing from one step to another of this sister's career.

She loved the Homes at Mason City and during her term as President raised the money to buy the instruments for the first Boys' Band and Girls' Orchestra in the Home, and enough more to pay for their instruction for some time. We recall how very proud Sister Kellogg was of the band and orchestra when they were brought to the session and furnished music for both the Grand Lodge and the Assembly.

Her persistence in the work was shown when she retired from the President's chair in that there was not a delinquent Rebekah lodge in the state. She had wonderful ability as an organizer and worked especially with the weaker lodges; this was made manifest when she organized a ten member degree staff among her own lodge members and brought them to the Assembly to show the smaller lodges what was possible for them to accomplish with a few members. Sister Kellogg had a vision and carried it out to such an extent and to such perfection as to win prizes at The Sovereign Grand Lodge with her ten member staff.

She was a great leader in raising money for her lodge work, no undertaking seemed too big for her, even to being chairman of a committee that put on a banquet of 1,000 plates, carrying it out successfully. It was in this way the money was raised to defray the expenses of her small staff to five different sessions of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, where as Noble Grand of the staff they won prizes at four different sessions in the degree work.

Just one year ago she stood before the Assembly and told of the work her staff, which had grown to twelve members, had done at the session at Toronto.

Sister Kellogg was present at the organization of the National Assembly and was an officer in it at the time of her death.

She never missed a session of the Assembly and very few of The Sovereign Grand Lodge sessions. It would be useless to try to go into detail in the work of such ambition as she possessed; she was bright, and conversant with the laws of the Order. When Sister Kellogg passed away, many were the expressions of love and esteem over the state from all branches of the Order; the calling to mind of some particular thing done for some lodge, etc., for she was loved and respected in the work as only one can be who has done their very best.

"Lives of great men all remind us,
We should make our lives sublime;
And departing, leave behind us,
Footprints on the sands of time."

To this dear family, we ask as an Assembly that you look at the "footprints" of her great work in the Order, which will stand as an everlasting monument to her memory. These memories will be an incentive to us to build higher and higher; the influence of our sister shall be felt. Every one has left behind an influence for good or for evil. What kind of a monument are you building? Will your "footprints" stand our calling attention to your work in a way to cause your loved ones to revere your memory?

Let us be guided by the influence of those who have gone and gathered up the sunbeams they have scattered and weave them into memory's golden chain. Now shall we not be happy that our dear ones are with Him who giveth His loved ones sleep?

"He sees when their footsteps falter, when their hearts grow weak and faint;
He marks when their strength is failing, and listens to each complaint;
He bids them rest for a season, for the pathway has grown too steep,

And folded in fair, green pastures,
He giveth His loved ones sleep.

"Weep not that their toils are over; weep not that their race is run;
God grant we may rest as calmly when our work, like theirs, is done;
Till then we would yield with gladness our treasures to Him to keep;

And rejoice in the sweet assurance—
He giveth His loved ones sleep."

Our Deceased Sisters

Eulogy by Nellie Hazlett, Warden

It is always with a feeling of sadness that we meet on an occasion of this kind; but when we look out in the sunshine of this beautiful October afternoon, and view the beauties of nature about us, I think how wisely and how well has the Heavenly Father planned. Even in the midst of our deepest sorrows, our greatest afflictions, we cannot look upon the beauties of nature, we cannot listen to the wondrous music without a thrill of gladness stealing into the heart.

"To him who in love of Nature holds
Communion with her visible forms, she speaks
A various language; for his gayer hours
She has a voice of gladness, and a smile
And eloquence of beauty, and she glides
Into his darker musings with a mild
And healing sympathy, that steals away
Their sharpness, ere he is aware."

It becomes my duty today to speak in memory of the sisters, who since last we met have passed to the Great Beyond; who have journeyed to that vast Unknown from whence no traveler returns. Many have left us and are now resting in the silent city of the dead.

Their work on earth is finished and they have gone to their reward; but they still live in our memory, still shed their gentle influence about us.

We miss their pleasant smiles and cheerful greetings; and the memory of their lives will ever be an inspiration for good.

"Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

"Life is real, life is earnest
And the grave is not its goal.
Dust thou art to dust returneth,
Was not spoken of the soul!"

For many years it has been customary to hold these Memorial Services, to pause in the midst of this, our busy week, to pay tribute to our departed sisters and brothers. It is a beautiful custom; and although by it we do not benefit our deceased members, by recalling their many virtues and good deeds, we gain a lesson in fraternity that will be of great value to ourselves.

The dead are beyond our reach; they do not need our love and sympathy, our duty is to the living. What we say and do can be a comfort to those who are left behind.

It is hard to take the heart lesson which death teaches; but it is one which all must learn, and yet for every tear that sorrowing mortals shed some good is born, some gentler nature comes.

"If we could push ajar the gates of life
And enter in and all God's workings see,
We could interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find the key.

"But not today. Then be content poor heart;
God's plans like lilies pure and white unfold;
We must not pull the close shut leave apart;
Time will reveal their calyxes of gold."

There are many about us who by death are deprived of human love; they thereby miss the sympathy and solace which it imparts. To them the way of life which was once brightened by love and smiles, becomes a lonesome dreary road; but in their hour of sadness there comes to them the assurance of a divine love.

"A father to the fatherless and a judge of the widow is God in His Holy Habitation."

But divine love is often ministered through human hands; so let us by cheerful words and helpful deeds disperse their gathering gloom.

Every sorrow we can help to comfort, every burden we can help to bear, every teardrop we can wipe away will help to brighten some ones' dreary road.

"Though sorrowful tears must fall;
And the heart to its depths be riven
By storm and tempest, we need them all
To render us fit for heaven."

True Rebekahism is looking after the needs and necessities of humanity. It was in such work that we knew our sisters best. They did not wait for great deeds but willingly did whatever they could.

Many of their good deeds and acts of loving kindness may have been performed in so quiet and gentle a way, that only those for whom they were done know about them.

But the Father who seeth in secret Himself shall reward thee openly.

"'Tis not all of life to live nor all of death to die."

This earth is a place where things are begun not ended, a place where we begin to live, a place where we educate the soul for the eternal life. And we feel that those who have gone before us, by practicing the teachings of our Order, have helped to gain this education and entered into that eternal life.

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one that wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

At this time in the autumn when the flowers and leaves are falling to Mother Earth and all Nature is preparing for a season of rest, I think of our sisters in their silent resting places, awaiting the call of the resurrection, when they shall come forth to new life as the flowers and leaves come forth at the call of spring.

They are not dead but sleeping.

When we think of the loved ones who are gone, many times visions rise in our minds of what has been and what we had hoped might be; but even though it were possible, we would not waken. we would not recall them.

"Brief life is here our portion.
Brief sorrow, short lived care;
The life that knows no ending;
The tearless life is there."

Joseph Oliver, Grand Sire

Eulogy by W. S. Kight, Past Grand Master

We are paying our tribute today to a man who unquestionably exerted upon others a strong influence that was always of the best and highest. I believe you will wish me at this time to speak of the sincere grief the death of our Grand Sire Oliver has caused and to try to express something of our appreciation of his sterling character and kindly heart.

As a man and Grand Sire he had made a remarkable impression in a comparatively short time, simply because he had it in him to do so. Exceptional force of character, a plainness of purpose in all that he did, that could not be mistaken, and a delightful naturalness quickly won him the respect of the Odd Fellows of our great jurisdiction.

He was trusted absolutely. He came to us extending a large hearted good will and our regard for him could not be withheld. He came holding a very lofty opinion of the Odd Fellows and the principles for which they stand, and had indelibly stamped upon him the years he was active in Odd Fellowship, the impression of what he saw during these years.

This feeling of his towards this great Brotherhood, a sentiment that he never concealed, also had its effect upon us and we instinctively became his friends. And I am disposed to believe it did more than add to the number of his friends.

It assuredly must help towards the strengthening of the best relations of a great brotherhood. Grand Sire Joseph Oliver performed what may prove to be far reaching public service. Certain it is that he made the most of every opportunity as well as of more formal occasions that readily occur to mind to foster that perfect understanding between his people and ours, the promotion of which was in the interest of the world at large; this was a work well worth a good man's doing. He did it carefully and with wisdom. He rests from his labors, the result of his activities will survive.

Zala A. Church, H.G.M., H.G.P., H.G.R.

Eulogy by H. F. Wagner, Past Grand Master

The duty has been assigned to me to speak of our lamented brother, Zala A. Church, familiarly known as Judge Church. I esteem it a great privilege of being permitted, at this time, to say something in my own way by way of eulogy relative to the service, life and character of this good brother.

He was born at Dayton, Wisconsin, May 28, 1852, and died January 16th, of this year, having almost reached the seventieth milestone before the termination of his earthly career. The days of his boyhood and young manhood were industriously spent in his natal state. His education was acquired in the public schools of the state of his birth, at Dayton and Brooklyn, and his preliminary education there obtained was supplemented by study at Evansville Seminary, and later in the University of Wisconsin, where he took a partial course in Liberal Arts which was followed by the study of law, he having graduated from the University Law School at Madison in 1876. He, with his parents, migrated from the Badger State to the Hawkeye State in 1878, and located at Jefferson which continued to be his residence until the time of his death. He had chosen the profession of law for his life work and this he began immediately upon his coming to Jefferson.

He was married in 1881 to Miss May E. McCully. To this union were born three daughters, to-wit: Iza L., who predeceased her father; Bessie M., now Mrs. D. E. Lyon, of Jefferson, and Theo T., now Mrs. R. R. Huston, of Copemish, Michigan, which two latter and the widow survive him.

In politics Brother Church was a staunch republican, and was one of the leaders of his party in this state. He took an active interest in the affairs of his city, county, state and nation. He had held many positions of honor and political preferment, having held the offices of Mayor, Member of the School Board, County Recorder, two terms; County Attorney, two terms, and Judge of the District Court, four terms. He was a member from Iowa of the electoral college which elected Benjamin Harrison President of the United States in 1888.

He was an ardent member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, having been an Odd Fellow since January 1, 1876, and being an enthusiastic member of every branch of the Order. He was elected and served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, I. O. O. F., from October, 1902, to October, 1903, and was subsequently elected and served as Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., from October, 1913, to October, 1914. He was also honored by three elections as Representative to The Sovereign Grand Lodge and was one of the ablest members of said Sovereign Body.

Brother Church was also affiliated with the Knights of Pythias and Masonic fraternities. He was a thorough Bible student, and an active member and officer of the Baptist church, where on Sunday mornings he was usually found in Holy worship and seeking to obtain knowledge of our Divine Master.

So much by way of history relative to this beloved brother. Now, what appropriate words can I use on this occasion to express my feelings and the sentiments of the membership of this Grand Lodge?

I first became acquainted with Brother Church at the time of my advent into the Grand Lodge in 1901, and he immediately became interested in me and I shall never forget his many kindnesses and assistance rendered at that time to me, as a young lawyer, who had been elected by the Odd Fellows of my district as a representative to this Grand Body. I had a desire to well and faithfully perform my duties as a representative but didn't know how to do it. It was Brother Church who came to my relief. I knew of the teachings of Odd Fellowship, but I knew but very little as to the law of our Order. Brother Church knew both and in lending me assistance carried out the principles of Friendship as taken from the covenant between Jonathan and David, and of brotherly love as taken from the parable of the Good Samaritan and impressively stamped upon my mind that truth is the imperial virtue.

Brother Church was not only kind to me but to every newly elected representative who, as a general rule, was more zealous than proficient.

On many occasions have I seen him come to the assistance of representatives on committees, aiding them to get their reports in proper form and to conform with the law. He was ever on the alert for the best interests of the Order. He had a keen intellect, quick perception, a splendid command of language, and wonderful power of expression of his thoughts.

I used to tell our Odd Fellows at home that he was the watch dog of the Grand Lodge. To my mind he was one of the very ablest members of this Grand Lodge and his advice and counsel and pleasing personality will be felt in this jurisdiction for years to come.

I served with him two years as a representative to The Sovereign Grand Lodge. Judge Church and I did not always agree but although we at times differed as to what was best to do, the strongest bonds of friendship existed between us and I always felt as a result of our conferences that I had come in touch with a true Odd Fellow and that I had been benefited by his superior judgment.

Judge Church was Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment the year when I was Grand Master and during that year we became more and more attached to each other and cemented together by the ties of Friendship, Love and Truth. No presiding officer of either the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment is entitled to more credit for what Odd Fellowship in Iowa is today than is Brother Church. It is my firm conviction that no one ever receives by way of benefit out of any institution any more than by way of service he puts into that institution. If Brother Church was benefited as much by his service to the Order as the Order was thereby benefited, then great, indeed, has been his reward.

Brother Church was a splendid lawyer, a successful advocate and a profound judge. He placed the practice of his chosen profession of the law upon a high plane. He was square as a man and therefore honorable in his profession. It is my profound belief that the character of the man will assert itself in the practice of the law. In other words, whatever the man himself is, that he will be as a lawyer. If as a man he is dishonest and wanting in integrity, then that man as a lawyer will be a scalawag. But on the other hand, if as a man he is square and honorable, then as a lawyer he will likewise be just as square and honorable. Judge Church belonged to this latter classification; and if all lawyers were such there would not be any disrepute among members of the legal profession.

He was a successful advocate. It has been my privilege to read what Judge E. G. Albert said of Judge Church before the Bar Association of Greene county, the county of his residence. Among other things he said, "As a lawyer Judge Church handled his cases well, was prompt, cautious and tenacious. His mode of conducting a trial was open fighting, trying cases as best he knew, throwing into the trial the full of his capacity, and abiding the result whatever it might be, accepting success without boasting and taking defeat without complaint, but with fortitude."

Does not this expression by Judge Albert, relative to Brother Church as a practitioner, coincide exactly with our views as to him as we knew him and of his service within the circle of our fraternity?

He was a splendid Judge and in ability was above the average of those who wear the judicial ermine. His active mind and profound knowledge of the law, were valuable assets to him in his judicial service. It can be truthfully said that his court reflected his geniality and his decisions his own ideas of justice in the light of the law as he saw it. For sixteen years he served on the district bench, and this long tenure bespeaks the confidence which his constituency had in him as an officer. He sat on the bench, carefully attentive to the evidence as elicited from the witness stand, and then applied what he honestly believed to be the law to the facts in the case and without fear or favor rendered his decision right from the shoulder regardless of whom it pleased or displeased.

While always busy in his active profession and official career, yet he never neglected his home and the members of his family. He loved his home and was devoted to his family and they likewise adored him. A citizen of his home town and a member of his lodge has written me, "I never met a happier family." No higher compliment could be passed upon any man. The man who labors more to secure the plaudits of the world than the more solid and precious approbation of his own home accomplishes little of good for others or of honor to himself. His wife was his boon companion and his confidant on all occasions. What a blessing and help she has been to Brother Church, no language can truthfully delineate. Yes, from the sacred fireside of the home come all the purity, all the hope and all the encouragement with which we men folks fight the battles of life. The home life of Brother Church and his estimable family was ideal and a fitting example for all of us to imitate.

The foregoing comprises the truth as I know it about our brother, as a man, as an Odd Fellow, as a lawyer and jurist, and as a husband and father. What more could one desire to have said of him by way of eulogy?

Too often, we are wont to withhold our complimentary remarks relative to another until after the ear of that other is listless, his heart irresponsive, and his voice stilled by death.

Inasmuch as this service can be of no benefit to the dead but only to the living, let me express this thought—and let us take it home to ourselves—that if we have not done our duty toward our deceased brother while he was yet alive, it does not behoove us on this solemn occasion to endeavor to make up for our sins of either commission or omission by saying nice things in commendation of his virtues.

During the year when he was Grand Patriarch and I Grand Master, we were at times both speakers at Odd Fellow functions. On one occasion I well remember that Judge Church sat to my right as I was addressing the audience. In the course of my remarks I said in substance, "I believe in all sincerity and candor that in the great Bank of Eternity the greatest credit will be given to those of us who have contributed the most to the sum of human joy, who have planted a flower in the heart of despair and kissed it with the sunshine of hope, who have painted the pallid cheek of care with the roses of health and happiness, who render these kindly ministrations before death while our hearts still beat and throb in response to kindly deeds and benefactions." "Amen," rang out from the lips of Judge Church. And in his address which followed he enlarged upon this thought, and I wish I could at this time quote his beautiful language in expression of that thought. This was a part of his creed and one worthy of adoption by all of us.

Judge Church was a good man, a man among men, one of God's noblemen, a splendid citizen, a loyal Odd Fellow, a devoted husband and father, a true friend.

While Brother Church has passed into the Great Beyond the pleasing recollection of his many virtues still lives in the hearts of his brother Odd Fellows and sister Rebekahs. Let us endeavor to so live that, when at some unknown time in futurity, we shall answer the final summons, we may in like manner continue to live in the hearts and memory of those whom we shall have blessed with kindly words and beneficent deeds.

Rank and File

Eulogy by Thos. S. Humphrey, Grand Chaplain

There is an oriental maxim as old as the earliest literature: "Earnestness is the path of immortality." The truth underlying this declaration is evidenced by history.

No man of questionable sincerity ever ascended to great and abiding renown. The gigantic figures of history, those which tower above the level of mediocrity and stand as sentinels along the avenues of human progress, have all demonstrated earnestness in thought, purpose and action. Wit and humor have their necessary and proper places in literature and speech. They afford relief from austerity and relaxation from anxiety, but neither furnishes a secure foundation for permanent fame. Only they who devote themselves seriously to the important problems of life are remembered with admiration by the generations following them.

Today we are assembled, to pay those tributes to the memory of our departed comrades which are prompted by the affectionate regard in which they are held by this great fraternity.

In the untimely departure of these illustrious sons and daughters of our Order, it has lost some of her most faithful and devoted servants. While humanity generally has suffered the loss of these advocates who were untiring in their zeal for its welfare and betterment.

It is indeed "a time of memory and of tears."

As a great congregation, we have been listening to these eloquent tributes of respect, and our hearts have become strangely sad, and the unbidden tears fill our eyes, and our hearts become more tender as we reverently echoed in the quiet recesses of our souls the eulogies and tributes that have been spoken of them.

I cannot but feel that a great honor has been conferred upon me today, that of paying my feeble but heartfelt tribute to the memory of the noble Rank and File of this fellowship who have passed on to the greater life through the gates that never swing out, during the past year.

On the morning of the eleventh of last November, a representative of America's honored soldier dead was laid to rest in beautiful Arlington cemetery. A nameless martyr joined his comrades that day in the ranks of Arlington's pale battalion of the dead while the mighty of many nations stood with uncovered heads beside his grave.

They dressed his coffin in the flag he served; they bore him aloft through the streets of the city; they placed medals upon his casket; they knelt at his tomb, and there were those who kissed the cold marble that encased him.

Never so grand and never so simple a ceremony marked the burial of a man until this third Armistice day—when the President of the United States, two former presidents, the premier of a sister republic, generals of great armies, admirals of titan fleets, and a host of the world's most brilliant men and women marched to Arlington and stood in the Memorial amphitheater and gave tribute to the unknown hero dead.

Today the unknown soldier keeps his lonely watch in the marble trench beside the peaceful Potomac, in Arlington, "The Golgotha of the Brave."

The activities of nations were halted, ceasing from their usual toil and endeavor, and unnumbered thousands made pilgrimage to the catafalque upon which lay the remains of a soldier of the ranks who fell on the field of honor.

In a much less spectacular way, and a more humble way we have come to this Memorial Service, in loving devotion to the life and character of those who fell out on life's frontier, in the bloodless battle of life. For there are those who lay down their lives as heroically in life's never ending struggle, as those who make the supreme sacrifice on the battlefield in the defense of their country.

We seek to honor, today, those of the silent majority who were content to march in the ranks, doing good for its own sake, not seeking the public eye, nor courting the public favor, but were faithful to duty in the ordinary affairs of life.

These did not strive for positions of honor and distinction in our Order, nor did they aspire to places of prominence, and yet they in a more humble way have wrought such valiant service of no less value than that of those who occupied larger places of opportunity.

Today we publicly mourn the loss of their valued services and in a personal way we feel keenly the loss of their dear companionship.

To these modest workers, we acknowledge our indebtedness.

It was upon such lives that the foundation of our Order was builded. Odd Fellowship finds its existence in the great scheme of things because of the exercise of these human virtues. They have performed their mission so nobly and heroically, unselfishly they have accomplished their task. They have climbed to the summit of the mountain, their vision swept the wide horizon, they heard the angels calling them, and they were obedient to the final summons. The impenetrable shadows fell about them, and they were gone. They have gone up higher, that is all.

In old Testament history we are told of a certain man who was an obscure teacher. He was one of those noble characters of the common mold. He was possessed of no rare and unusual powers as a leader, however he early became prominently connected and closely identified with the cause of God, and the rights of his people. He was a plain and simple man who loved all mankind, standing for the principles of right, he had charity for all, he trusted in God and his people and never lost faith in humanity. He had a personality that drew men to him and drew him to men. He championed the cause of the oppressed and lived for the good that he could do. His noble character shone forth in unselfish service.

One morning the news went swiftly up the street that Jehoida, the great commoner, was dead, and the people lamented his untimely death. A great gloom spread over the country.

"The day was not so bright, because his light had gone out,

The day was not so warm, because his heart was cold in death."

There were great demonstrations of mourning over all Israel, and he was accorded a royal funeral. "And they buried him in the City of David among the kings."

In Jehoida the people recognized a sovereign greater than many, and equal to the best. They looked upon him as their natural, yet uncrowned king. One's influences may not necessarily be little because his position is obscure. Because this servant of God, and friend of man pursued his course of faithfulness and devotion, his name has been kept from oblivion, yea more, it is immortalized by being embalmed in The Book of Books.

Engraved upon the tablets of our memories, and bound in the archives of our history, the services of our departed comrades will remain as an ever living memorial which shall not crumble into dust as long as the ages of time shall endure.

It is well that we, walking in the front ranks of civilization, should commemorate the deeds of our beloved dead whose spirits rule us still from the sacred urn, and who will ever live greenly in our memories. We do honor ourselves in this observance, and we find a secret joy in thus commemorating the services of those who have bequeathed to us such inspiring examples and legacies that shall stand before us and those who follow us so long as the principles of the Golden Rule are revered by the sons of men.

Today, we come not to mourn a defeat, but to celebrate a victory. That which we called death, was to them, a coronation day.

Death is but a transition. Why should we mourn over the death of those we love when those who die are not lost, because they live and are present not only in the material world, but more especially in the spiritual. The imperfect human senses are often unable to know and feel that presence, but in reality death only gives a new form of life.

They live, whom we call dead. They live in our memories, they live in our hearts and they live in our lives. In every age the undying dead have come forth from their silent tombs. Their shadowy train fills all presence. In every time some have lived again in beaten bronze and sculptured marble. Some have lived in song and story, but these tributes have passed with their authors to the oblivious tomb. The sculptured marble may moulder and surrender its epitaph to the ravages of time and the rolling years. Even the beaten bronze may buried lie beneath the accumulating dust of ages. "Such tributes, such memorials await the inevitable hour, they too pursue those paths that lead but to the grave." The best and brightest monument which we can dedicate to our fallen comrades, the holiest shrine that we can dedicate to them, must be found in the hearts and the memories of their fellow men.

Let us console ourselves, we who have lost companions dear to us. We have not lost them forever. They are no longer perceptible to our senses, yet they have not ceased to live. Perhaps in the mysterious twilight, when the darkness of the heavens descend upon the earth and the prayers of earth ascend to the heavens, the light of the eyes that quickened your heart with love will form part of the light of some evening star smiling upon your long hours of meditation and grief. The flowers your children caress in the garden may be the fiber of the heart of him who loved them so much, of that heart that beat only for their happiness. Perhaps the affectionate arms which so often gave you courage in your hours of trial and despair will again caress you in the shape of a gentle breeze, refreshing your perspiring brow in the moments of fatigue, or in the form of a fond recollection consoling your downcast heart.

The silent comradeship of this fraternity lives on, loved and honored from year to year. We cannot say that they are dead. To our Order's dead we owe a living life. To us they have cast the torch. 'Tis ours to "carry on."

In this hour so mystically sad, we seem to hear their familiar voices from over the tide, calling us to the larger service of consecration to the work they so recently laid down.

We leave them to the judgments of the ages, the work of the rank and file goes on. Their career on earth is finished; they have run the course; they have kept the faith; they have fought the good fight; they will reap the everlasting reward in the Grand Lodge triumphant, and we, their brothers can say truthfully—"Well done, good and faithful servants," a grateful fraternity will keep thy memory green. Farewell.

REBEKAH QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

By Grand Master Lynn J. Irwin, as Modified and Approved by the Grand Lodge

No. 1. Statement—The installation ceremony provides that the District Deputy President shall ask the question: "Has the bond of the Treasurer been regularly executed, etc." The Ritual gives the following as one of the answers to this question: "I have ascertained that this lodge requires no bond of its Treasurer." Section 46, of the Constitution, provides that the Treasurers of Rebekah lodges must give bonds.

Question—Is it legal for the lodges of this jurisdiction to require no bond of their Treasurer?

Answer—No.

No. 2. Statement—A committee is appointed to draft new By-Laws, makes report and reads By-Laws as drafted.

Question—Does the reading of their report constitute one reading of the By-Laws?

Answer—Yes.

No. 3. Statement—Does a lodge have the right to adopt the following By-Law: "No elective officers shall hold office longer than two consecutive terms."

Answer—No, the Constitution enumerates the qualifications for holding office, and a By-Law that adds to or takes from these qualifications is illegal.

No. 4. Statement—The By-Laws of a Rebekah lodge provides that the dues of the lodge shall be $1.50 per member per annum and that 50 cents of said dues shall be set aside in a special refreshment fund.

Question—Is the above and foregoing By-Law legal?

Answer—No, a lodge cannot expend its funds for refreshments, therefore a part of the dues cannot be set aside for an illegal purpose.

No. 5. Question—May a lodge make a donation to the hospital fund of the Home at Mason City from its general fund?

Answer—Yes.

No. 6. Question—Is the sister-in-law of an Odd Fellow eligible to membership in a Rebekah lodge?

Answer—No, not upon the membership of her brother-in-law.

No. 7. Statement—On January 14, 1921, a sister and brother were elected to membership to this lodge by transfer, transfer certificate asked for and granted and bears date of January 21, 1921, the brother and sister were twice notified to appear and sign the Constitution but did not appear until February 24, 1922.

Question—Do they now have the right to sign the Constitution and is there a time limit to a transfer?

Answer—No.

No. 8. Statement—On November 11, 1921, application for membership was presented and an investigating committee appointed thereon. Said committee reported favorably on all the applications. On November 28, 1921, a separate ballot was had on these applications and two of said applicants were rejected. On December 23rd the Noble Grand declared the ballot taken on the applications rejected as null and void for the reason that seven members had voted who were in arrears for dues and the Noble Grand ordered the Recording Secretary to strike from the records of the meeting of November 28th, the result of the ballot on the applications rejected.

Question—Was this procedure legal?

Answer—No, the Noble Grand does not have the right to declare a ballot illegal, neither does she have the right to order any portion of the record with reference to a lodge meeting expunged. Unfavorable ballots must be reconsidered in accordance with the Constitution, and the minutes of your meeting of November 28th, must show the rejection of these candidates.

No. 9. Statement—A sister dropped for non-payment of dues from our lodge and now a resident of the City of Des Moines, has made written application for reinstatement.

Question—Can we reinstate her on written application or does she have to be present in person?

Answer—A lodge may take action on her application without the sister being present. A brother or sister reinstated is not required to sign the Constitution.

No. 10. Statement—Early in the year our lodge gave a public program for the purpose of raising money for the hospital fund and as a part of the entertainment a drill was put on by a party of young girls and during the drill the letters I. O. O. F. were worked out by the team.

Question—Was this a violation of our law?

Answer—No, the above drill was not a violation of our law, provided, however, the team did not wear the robes of the lodge. Under our law the robes are not to be worn in public.

No. 11. Statement—The Constitution of the Rebekah lodge requires Secretary to report delinquent members to the lodge on the first stated meeting in January and July. This was neglected last January.

Question—Can the delinquents be reported to the lodge, notified and dropped for non-payment of dues between now and July 1st?

Answer—Under our law the first stated meeting in January and the first stated meeting in July are fixed as the time for reporting delinquent members and no other date will do. Notice must be given strictly in accordance with the provisions of Section 65, Rebekah Constitution.

No. 12. Statement—A committee is appointed to provide refreshments for the lodge.

Question—Should the members of this committee have the right to retire from the lodge room without addressing the chair?

Answer—No, all members leaving the lodge room shall address the chair.

No. 13. Question—Can a lodge legally receive and act upon the report of a committee on a petition when only one member of the committee has signed the report?

Answer—No, a majority of the committee must sign the report.

No. 14. Statement—On the regular night for the nomination of officers is a motion required to close the nomination?

Answer—No. The Noble Grand may ask the question, "Are there any further nominations?" If none are forthcoming after a reasonable wait she may declare the nominations closed.

No. 15. Statement—Recently we elected by ballot and initiated a man and wife into our lodge. On the regular election night the sister insisted that she was entitled to vote for Assembly officers as she has been a Past Noble Grand in a Rebekah lodge, although she could produce no credentials of any kind. Some time thereafter she presented her mother's name for membership by initiation and the mother was elected by ballot, but on the night of initiation and before she had been initiated, we discovered that the mother had also been a Rebekah. We had innocently taken in the others, but we sent the mother home to obtain a card from her old lodge.

Question—What shall these parties do to legally complete their membership in this lodge?

Answer—A lodge does not have the right to initiate candidates more than once. I take it that this brother and sister have been dropped for non-payment of dues in some other lodge. If I am correct in this they must procure a dismissal certificate from the lodge of their former membership. They may then petition your lodge and be received into membership in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws of your lodge with reference to admission by dismissal certificate. In case that the lodge to which they formerly belonged is now defunct they must obtain a defunct certificate from the Grand Secretary. He or she may then petition your lodge presenting this certificate as evidence of former membership.

No. 16. Question—Is it lawful to hold memorial services at a time other than the regular memorial service held in June and is it lawful to drape the charter for more than one member if the member has been dead a year or more, ceremony having been neglected at the time of death?

Answer—Memorial services of the Order are held at the time designated by the proclamation of the Grand Master, usually in the month of June of each year. The ceremony of draping the charter is a service rendered by a lodge in memory of their dead members and can be held once each year or oftener if the lodge so desires. A lodge may drape the charter for more than one member, even though the members have been dead for a year or more.

No. 17. Question—In voting on the granting of a waiver of jurisdiction is the vote to be taken by ball ballot?

Answer—Yes, and if the majority of the members present and entitled to vote vote in favor of said waiver, permission may be granted.

No. 18. Statement—Rebekah Constitution provides that the Noble Grand and Vice Grand shall pass a satisfactory examination in the Unwritten Work in open lodge before they may be installed into their offices.

Question (a)—Is the holder of a commission to instruct in the Unwritten Work required to pass this examination?

(b)—What constitutes a satisfactory examination?

Answer (a)—This examination must be held in open lodge and the fact that the sister holds a commission to instruct would not excuse her from this examination.

(b)—The examination shall be of such a nature as shall be satisfactory to members present on the night that the examination is held.

No. 19. Statement—Motion is made, seconded and carried that a sister who has been notified to sit up with a sick sister and failing to do so or send a substitute, shall be fined the sum of one dollar and said fine must be paid before any dues will be accepted from the sister by the lodge.

Question—Is the above and foregoing motion legal?

Answer—A lodge has the right to prescribe a penalty for an offense of this kind, but the penalty can only be enforced after a trial or hearing in the lodge; the Secretary would not have the right to merely tax up the account of the fine without a hearing.

No. 20. Statement—Two applications are presented to our lodge by two sisters, one of them married and the other single. They are both step-daughters of an Odd Fellow.

Question—May we receive and ballot upon the applications?

Answer—The applicant who is married is not eligible to membership upon the membership of her step-father; unless her husband is an Odd Fellow, her father or brother was or is an Odd Fellow, she is not eligible. The applicant who is single is eligible to the Order and her application may be received.

No. 21. Question—Does it require a motion authorizing the Secretary to return the fee where an applicant is rejected?

Answer—No.

No. 22. Statement—This lodge has elected two of our sisters to receive the Decoration of Chivalry and have voted to pay for the jewels out of the treasury of the lodge.

Question—Do we have a legal right to use our funds for this purpose?

Answer—No, see Proceedings 1911, page 71, Decision 41.

Trustees' Report

---

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

The Board of Trustees of the Iowa Odd Fellows and Orphans Home beg leave to submit to the Grand Lodge of Iowa the following report for the year beginning September 1, 1921, and ending August 31, 1922:

Funds for Maintenance

At the last session of the Grand Lodge there was voted for maintenance for the Homes and for the improvements during the past year the sum of $56,000.00, together with such additional sums as might be received for the care of residents, sale of stock, grain, or other products from the farm, and receipts from meals and from the Rebekah Assembly. By later portions of this report it will be noticed that some of the improvements designated by the Grand Lodge were not made, but that other improvements, more needed, were made by the Trustees. The financial report, shown hereafter in this report, shows that the Trustees were able to maintain the Home and make certain improvements upon the appropriation made with a deficit of only $77.77, although the appropriation was $9,000.00 smaller than for the previous year.

There are certain improvements that must be made during the coming year. At the last session of the Grand Lodge, the Trustees were directed to construct a swimming pool. This was not done for the reason that there is not adequate water supply. During the last summer it was necessary to get repairs for our pump, and the Trustees believe that during the next year it will be necessary to buy a new pump for the well upon the grounds. The present well hardly supplies the needs during hot weather and either a new well must be put down, or a pump of greater capacity put in the present well, providing the test shows that sufficient water is present. Taking these things into consideration, and also the fact that the number of residents is increasing and will increase, the Trustees ask that the appropriation for the coming year for maintenance and improvements may be at least the same amount provided for at the last session of the Grand Lodge, and if the Grand Lodge sees fit that the appropriation may be slightly increased.

Farm Report

Our farm now consists of 260 acres and we believe that the farm and grounds now look better than at any previous period in the history of the Homes. At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, which was held at the Homes on the 1st of September, a careful examination was made of all of the crops, buildings and personal property belonging to the Homes. The corn crop is in excellent condition and there will be a large yield. Most of the corn is cut for ensilage for the use of our dairy cows during the winter. We believe that we will raise sufficient potatoes for Home use during the winter, and the vegetable garden has yielded bountifully. At this point we should commend the energy and thoroughness of August Braun, our efficient gardener, who presents this year a garden that would be the pride of any institution.

The following produce has been sold from and used for the Homes during the past year at prices figured at the market price when used, to-wit:

Meats .....	$ 2,440.16
Milk .....	6,776.53
Eggs .....	189.32
Potatoes and vegetables.....	1,499.60
Total.....	$10,905.61

The stock on the farm is in excellent condition as is evidenced from the report of the products raised. Superintendent Stubbs should be highly commended for the efficient manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the farm during the past year.

Improvements at the Homes

At the last session of the Grand Lodge a report of the Finance Committee was approved, in which the Trustees were authorized to make certain permanent improvements at the Homes. At that session of the Grand Lodge certain specifications, made by Ray Floyd Weirick, landscape gardener, were submitted by the Trustees to the Grand Lodge. The Trustees were authorized to make the improvements as recommended. This has not been done. In order to do this it was necessary to obtain from other parts of the grounds about 2,000 yards of dirt. The Trustees, realizing that either a new building, or enlargements to old buildings would have to be made in the very near future, postponed the moving of this dirt until the dirt would be available from the excavating for the new building. We are hoping that this will be done during the next year, and the expense, by this method, of improving the lawn would be very much less than it would have been to have removed the dirt from other portions of the grounds.

A Dodge touring car was purchased and has been at the Home for the use of the Superintendent during the whole year. The old Ford car that we formerly had was converted into a small truck.

The Homes needed repainting and redecorating, both inside and out. During the year we have had the interior of the Orphans Home redecorated, including the nursery. The appearance is very much improved. The exterior of the Orphans building was also repainted. This improvement had been needed for some time. It will be almost a necessity to repaint the outside and redecorate the interior of the Old Folks Home during the coming year.

The Trustees, as directed by the Grand Lodge at its last session, purchased from the Hanford estate twenty acres of ground adjacent to the Home. The same is now a part of our farm. The Superintendent has plowed and seeded the greater portion of it and a part of it will be put in crops another year. This purchase made a great improvement to the general appearance of the grounds and prevented the possibility of buildings in close proximity to our Homes. The limits of Mason City have been extended until there are now dwellings next to our grounds on the southeast side and it may be feasible in the near future to sell or plat a portion of the south one hundred and sixty acres. This, however, would come up for consideration at a later time.

All of the outside fence around the entire farm, including the twenty acres purchased, has been rebuilt with good full cedar posts and hog tight wire. The fence makes a good appearance. There are one or two inside division fences which will have to be rebuilt during the coming year.

The Trustees had had under consideration for several years the installation of a refrigerating plant. During this last year such a refrigerating plant was purchased and installed in the basement of the Orphans Home. The capacity is sufficient for all needs of the present and of the immediate future. The plant also has an ice making department which freezes enough ice for the needed uses of the Homes. This plant was installed complete with guarantee for the sum of $1,800.00.

Membership Report

The number of residents in our Homes has increased during the last year. On September 1, 1921, as shown by the report of the Trustees, there were in our Homes at Mason City one hundred and eighty-eight residents; on September 1, 1922, there were two hundred and eleven, being an increase of twenty-three. There are one hundred and four men and women and one hundred and seven boys and girls.

The general health of the residents during the last year has been good. Many of the men and women, however, on account of their advanced age, are in a feeble condition and need constant care and attention.

The Trustees removed to the state institution at Glenwood two of the children in the Home, viz: David Edwards and Virginia Edwards.

Recommendations of Trustees

It has become a necessity to increase the capacity of our Homes. We now have in the Old Folks Home over one hundred residents. This is far beyond its capacity. The Trustees have found it necessary during the last year to construct temporary rooms in the hallways, in the chapel and in the pool room. The building is over-crowded and it is necessary to have more room. The Trustees know that our Order does not desire to have the standard of the Home reduced and does not desire that the rules of admission shall be made so stringent that none can be admitted.

The Trustees have studied the question of additional room and have considered the plan of building a new building, the plan of building additional stories on the old building, and a plan for building an addition to the Old Folks Home. We have made and have had others make plans, for the securing of additional room. The Chairman of the Homes' Committee and the Trustees have concluded that the best and most feasible plan is to build an addition to the south of the Old Folks Home and we will have at the Grand Lodge contemplated plans of such construction. The plan is to build an addition sixty feet long on the south of the Old Folks Home, being of the same general plan as the present building, so that when the addition is constructed the building will have the general effect of one complete structure. This addition will give us the necessary extra dining room space and between seventy and eighty bed rooms. It will also give us the opportunity to have a hospital room for the women and a hospital room for the men and will meet the requirements of the Home for many years to come. The estimated cost of such a construction is $75,000.00.

The Trustees therefore ask that the Grand Lodge at its coming session authorize the Trustees to proceed with the construction of this addition and that the Grand Lodge provide the necessary funds for its construction.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the Trustees desire to express their great appreciation of the assistance that has been given to them by the chairman of the Homes Committee and by the Advisory Board of the Rebekah Assembly. Their co-operation and advice have been greatly appreciated and have been of valuable assistance to the successful completion of the year's work. Through the Advisory Board, the Rebekah Assembly has furnished school supplies and paid the salaries of the school teachers and replenished the needed furnishings of the Home and has overseen the management of our school maintained in the Home. The custom has been continued during the last year of having four grades of school maintained in the Home and the balance of the children attend the higher grades and high school in the public schools of Mason City.

We desire, also, to state that A. W. Stubbs and Mrs. Harriett Stubbs, his wife, as Superintendent and as Matron, are doing a splendid work and their efforts and labors are shown by the close of a successful year.

We urge upon the members of the Order to visit our Homes at Mason City, so that they can have, from personal inspection, information concerning the standard that is maintained at the Homes and the manner in which these Homes are conducted. We urge that the several lodges would delegate brothers to visit the Homes and make full reports to the lodges. During the fore part of the month of July of each year, the Home Association has a picnic which is attended by the Grand Officers and the representatives of many lodges besides those belonging to the Homes Association, and we believe that at this time representatives of all the lodges of the State of Iowa should visit the Homes and make this event of statewide interest to our Order.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN C. SCOTT, Chairman,

F. J. ALBER, Treasurer,

WM. H. WINEGAR, Secretary,

Board of Trustees.

Superintendent's Report

The wheels of time have once more carried us past another milestone which help to mark the course of human life, and guided us to the gateway of another year. The one just passed has been a very pleasant year for the Home family; true there have been many unpleasant things, and many heartaches, but in the main part a pleasant one.

So much has been done, so many courtesies shown, and things done by various lodges and individuals to bring happiness to our residents, it is impossible to enumerate them or to acknowledge them separately, but let it be known that each and every kindly act has been gratefully received by our residents and they extend their heartfelt thanks for the same.

We are glad the membership of our Order manifest the interest which they do in our Homes. We have had about three thousand visitors during the past year, and nearly everyone says they can go back to their lodge with renewed energy and enthusiasm, to put forth greater effort for those unfortunate ones of our membership, and they must not be neglected. As we give you this report we have one hundred and eight children and one hundred and six old people.

Religious Services

Religious services are held each Sunday, preaching at two-thirty and Sunday School at three p. m. Rev. A. W. Tandy, of the First Baptist church, and Rev. C. E. Kearns, of the First Presbyterian church, of Mason City, have been dividing the work during the past year, and both are strong men, and give us wonderfully good sermons. Judge A. H. Cummins, also of Mason City, is Superintendent of our Sunday School and has not missed a Sunday for about sixteen months. He is a man whom we all love and who gives unselfishly of his time to anything that is for the good of the Home. Also the Rebekahs of Mason City are furnishing the teachers, who have been more than kind and generous with the children and old people, and all are good Christian people who are exerting the proper influence over the children.

Education

We have this year fifteen children in high school, about forty in the grade school, of Mason City, and will have about forty in the Home school, which will be taught by Mrs. Loren Beck, and Miss Mercedes White, also Miss White will teach piano. These teachers come to us with the best of recommendations and we feel that our children are receiving the best we can give them. The Home orchestra are playing very nicely and we are receiving many calls for them to play for conventions and special meetings.

Health

The past year has been very free from sickness, a few slight cases among the children and only sickness incident to old age among the old people.

Recreation

A great deal has been done by the different lodges for the entertainment of our residents, and it seems everyone is so kind and willing to help, especially have the two lodges of Mason City been very considerate and done all in their power to spread sunshine along the pathway of our residents.

Home Picnic

On July seventh, was held the thirteenth annual Home Picnic. Although the day was very chilly, there were about one thousand people gathered to enjoy the event, and everyone seemed to be having a good time and getting acquainted with the members from the different parts of the state. The date for the next picnic was left to the incoming Grand Master.

Reading Matter

Our people still have the use of the city library, the librarian coming to the Home every Thursday to exchange books for them. We also have several copies of the Iowa Odd Fellow, magazines suitable for the different ages and daily papers. The older residents usually receive their home papers and some of them the daily papers.

Inasmuch as we are curtailing expenses in every possible way, we believe this report should be as short and concise as is possible to make it and yet give our membership all of the facts concerning the Home, otherwise we should have gone more into detail.

We would feel that we had not performed our full duty if we were to close this report without expressing to the Grand Officers, and to the many members of both branches of the Order our appreciation of their kind words and encouragement. The Board of Trustees and Advisory Board have held their regular meetings, talked over the affairs of the Home, with the one thought in view, of always bettering conditions whenever possible; they have been very helpful and always ready to give advice and counsel when perplexing questions arise, and we hope the same pleasant relations may continue. In most cases we have had highly efficient help to whom a great deal of credit is due for the success and harmony of the Home. We have found that but few people are adapted to work in an institution of this kind, but to all, who have helped in any way, we extend our sincere thanks. Not many realize the work that is connected with a place of this kind, and how difficult it is to keep things running smoothly, and to get the best results with as little friction as possible, and always be ready to attend to the wants of the residents of the Home, make visitors know they are welcome, look after the business part of it, and so many little things that appear in the every day life of an institution, but where one is in harmony with their work, most difficulties are easily overcome.

In Friendship, Love and Truth,

A. W. STUBBS, Superintendent,

HARRIETT STUBBS, Matron.

Report of Chairman of Committee on Homes

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Iowa:

With another Grand Lodge session it becomes my duty to again report concerning Home affairs as they have come under my observation during the past year.

I have attended three meetings of the Board of Trustees during the year, the two semi-annual meetings and the special meeting held in June. At each of these meetings much routine business was disposed of and each time I made a careful inspection of the Homes property and conditions existing there. I find that affairs are being conducted in a very satisfactory manner and I have nothing of an adverse nature to report. I believe that all of those connected with the Home work and management, the several members of the Board of Trustees, the Superintendent and Matron, and those who have been employed in helping to carry on the work in the Homes and on the farm, have all given the best endeavor it was in their power to give. Everything has been kept in good shape and the best of care has been given for the health and comfort of our residents in both Homes.

As required by the rules governing this office I made careful examination of the bills and invoices of supplies purchased during the year and I am satisfied that the purchasing has been done in as economical a manner as can reasonably be expected and that finances pertaining to Home maintenance are being handled by our constituted authorities in a careful and satisfactory manner. Again we come to the end of the fiscal year with an unexpended balance in the Home Maintenance Fund, the Board having been able to keep expenses within the appropriation fixed by the Grand Lodge.

It is the duty of the Board of Trustees to set forth in their report to the Grand Lodge each year the year's business in detail, hence I shall not take up space to duplicate such information as will be found in their report. Just a brief mention of some items that are of interest will be here included.

The new acreage purchased east of the Old Folks Home has been added to the farm and fenced, and the wisdom of acquiring this valuable piece of property is plainly demonstrated to all observers.

The Orphans Home building has been nicely painted and redecorated and now presents a satisfactory appearance.

The water supply at the home is becoming somewhat of a problem. The old pump, in use for several years past, has only been kept running by much attention and repair, and, as the water supply is a matter of vital importance, a new pump should be supplied and any danger of a break down in this absolutely necessary service should be eliminated.

Our fine dairy is in excellent condition, having been recently tested to guard against tubercular infection in the herd. This should be done at least once a year as it is of vital importance that our milk supply should be kept absolutely pure.

Farm and crop conditions are in fine shape. The large garden and the fine production from the same deserves especial mention.

The great outstanding matter that is before us as a Grand Lodge is the pressing need to provide more room in order that we as an Order may properly meet our obligation to care for the orphans and indigent old brothers and sisters who will in the future, and are even at the present time, seeking admission to the Homes. Especially is the Old Folks Home over crowded and has no more room available except as present residents die or are dismissed. Beds have been placed in the assembly room, in halls and crowded to the limit in the former chapel, and at the present time the Board is forced to hold up a number of applications which should be given consideration.

The Board of Trustees and the Chairman of the Orphans Home Committee were constituted a committee by the Grand Lodge at its last session to consider this matter and to report a plan for providing the necessary room to take care of our ever increasing need. This committee will present a report at this session of the Grand Lodge giving the result of their careful investigation and consideration of the matter. No one familiar with conditions at the Home can deny the pressing need for more room and that such additional room should be provided at the earliest possible moment.

While measures may be proposed looking to the making of more strict regulations relative to the admission of residents to the Homes, and while merit may be found in such proposed legislation, nothing but the ultimate expansion of our accommodations at the Homes will successfully meet this problem. Having taken upon ourselves as an Order the obligation to properly care for our orphans and indigent old brothers and sisters we must not fail to live up to that obligation, even though it may demand something more of sacrifice from each lodge and each individual Odd Fellow holding membership in this Grand Jurisdiction to do so, I trust the Grand Lodge will give this important matter the most careful attention and not fail to meet and settle this problem for the honor and good of Odd Fellowship and for the faithful performance of our duty to those unfortunate ones who may now, or who may in the future, be committed to our care and protection as deserving residents of our Homes.

And now as I once more, and finally, lay down the duties of this office I want to express my appreciation of the kindness and fraternal co-operation of all my brothers and sisters who have been officially connected with me in the conduct of Home affairs. Also of that great fraternal spirit that has ever actuated our splendid membership in their support of every good measure proposed for the betterment and good government of our Homes. May this great institution continue to be a splendid monument to the real spirit of Odd Fellowship in this Grand Jurisdiction and may those who in the future shall be selected to carry on the work always have the loyal support of every Iowa Odd Fellow and Rebekah.

Respectfully submitted,
L. W. WHITE,
Chairman Homes Committee.

Report of Committee on Enlargement of Homes

At the last session of the Grand Lodge the Board of Trustees and the Chairman of the Orphans Home Committee were constituted a committee to investigate as to what is best to do in the matter of enlarging the Homes, said special committee to report at this session. (See Report No. 12 of Finance Committee, page 232, Journal of 1921.)

During the past year your committee has given this important matter careful consideration and has investigated, not only the pressing need for more room in the Homes, but has given much thought to each of the three plans proposed in Grand Master Price's report touching this matter. The three plans proposed were: First, to build another building. Second, to raise the present building by adding another story to each. Third, to extend the wings of the present Old Folks Home building to the south, enlarging said building by an adequate addition.

After a careful consideration of these three plans your committee has arrived at the conclusion that the third plan is preferable to either of the other two and recommends that an addition to the Old Folks Home building be constructed in accordance with plans therefor which will be submitted to this Grand Lodge for consideration. These plans provide for an extension of the east and west wings of said building for a distance of sixty feet to the south, and for connecting such extended wings with a building of like height and width, thus enclosing an open court between the present building and the proposed addition. This new addition will provide for the chapel or auditorium and for about seventy more rooms for residents, said rooms to be of the size and style of the rooms now located in the present building. The additional space necessary for the larger dining room to be provided by excavating across the west end of said court and building to a height to conform to the present sub-basement dining room. Hospital rooms will be taken care of in the present building.

This plan provides more room at less cost than can be had in a new building as all the rooms needed for parlor, elevator, kitchen, etc., are now located in the old building and will serve for the entire building, thus leaving the space in the new addition mostly available for living rooms for residents. By doing away with another kitchen, which would be necessary in another new building, it is estimated that we will save about a thousand dollars expense per annum. Also, a part of this proposed addition can be set apart for additional room as needed for the Orphans Home, thus covering the need for more room in both Homes. By this plan we keep our entire plant more closely centered adjacent to the heating plant and water supply. Estimates on cost as compared for the different plans show in favor of this plan by several thousand dollars.

The plan to provide more room by raising the roofs of the present buildings is not feasible on account of the Orphans Home having been rebuilt after the first building was burned, much of the old wall having been retained in rebuilding, thus constructing walls for this building which could not safely carry the additional weight of another story.

In view of the fact that more room must be provided at once if we are to meet the demand constantly being presented to accept worthy applicants, we, your committee, recommend that this Grand Lodge take proper action to insure the erection of the addition to the building as herein proposed at the earliest possible time.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. Scott, Chr.,
L. W. White,

W. H. Winegar,
F. J. Alber,
Committee.

Constitution for Rebekah Lodges

PREAMBLE

For the purpose of securing uniformity in conducting business in Rebekah lodges, the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of the State of Iowa, ordains the following Constitution for the Government of such lodges under its jurisdiction.

---

Section 1. Organization. This lodge shall consist of not less than five members, irrespective of sex, and shall be known as..... Rebekah Lodge, No....., I. O. O. F. and shall possess the powers and privileges of a Rebekah lodge, chartered by the Grand Lodge of Iowa.

Sec. 2. Powers. This lodge shall have power to confer the Rebekah Degree on such persons as are hereinafter named in Section 9.

Sec. 3. Meetings—When Held. Regular meetings shall be held at least once in each month, and be opened within fifteen minutes after the time prescribed in the By-Laws.

I. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be held upon the call of the Noble Grand or upon the written request of five members, one of whom shall be qualified to preside.

II. Whenever a special meeting shall be called, all members in good standing shall be notified, either by written or verbal notice, or by publication in a newspaper; and such notice shall state the object of said meeting; and no other business shall be transacted than that for which it is called.

III. Lodge not to transact business on Sunday. No lodge shall hold any meeting for work or business on Sunday, except for funeral purposes.

Sec. 4. Presiding Officer in the Absence of the Noble Grand and Vice Grand. If at any regular or special meeting the Noble Grand and Vice Grand shall both be absent, the Junior Past Noble Grand present shall preside during the meeting, or until one of said officers shall enter the lodge.

Sec. 5. Quorum. Each lodge is required to designate in its By-Laws what number of members, not less than five, one of whom shall be qualified to preside, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 6. Election Not Legal Unless a Quorum Votes. A quorum must always vote in this lodge to constitute a legal election of a candidate for membership, or admission of a member.

Sec. 7. Quorum Necessary to Transact Business. No business can be transacted in this lodge unless there be present a quorum of the members of said lodge.

Sec. 8. Resident Applicants. No petition for membership, either by initiation or upon a withdrawal or visiting card, dismissal certificate or official certificate, shall be received or acted upon by this lodge, if the residence of the applicant be within less distance of any other lodge, unless the consent of the lodge nearest the residence of the applicant accompany the application. In the event of there being two or more lodges in the same town, or at equal distance from the residence of the applicant, the choice of the lodge to which he or she may apply is optional. The distance herein stated shall be calculated by the most accessible way of travel between the residence of the applicant and the lodge room; and any lodge offending against the provisions hereof shall forfeit to the lodge injured all initiation fees received from a candidate wrongfully initiated, or received, and upon repetition of such offense may be suspended or expelled.

I. Provided, however, that should the offending lodge charge a less fee than the lodge injured, they shall be required to pay only the amount actually received.

Sec. 8a. Non-Resident Applicants. If the applicant be a resident of another jurisdiction, the consent of the Grand Master, both of the jurisdiction of his or her residence, and that in which the application is made, must accompany his or her application.

Sec. 9. Qualifications for Membership. The person herein specified shall be eligible to membership in a Rebekah lodge of this Order, subject to the laws relative to residence, of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and of the Grand Lodge of Iowa: and conditioned further that all female applicants shall be white women, who have attained the age of eighteen years, who believe in a Supreme, Intelligent Creator and Ruler of the Universe, and who are of good moral character.

I. All persons who have received the Rebekah degree.

II. All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, without regard to age, daughters, sisters and mothers. Also the daughters, sisters and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of our Order.

III. All unmarried white women who have attained the age of eighteen years.

Sec. 10. Petitions. Petitions for membership in this lodge, either by initiation, withdrawal, or visiting card, dismissal certificate, or official certificate, must be presented in writing at a regular meeting of the lodge, together with the proposition, certificate of the Secretary of the subordinate lodge and report of the Investigating Committee in the following form:

Committee.

Sec. 11. Investigating Committee. The Noble Grand shall appoint a committee of three, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the character, habits and standing of an applicant for membership, and report thereon to the lodge, on a succeeding regular night of meeting, but such applicant may be permitted to withdraw his or her petition at any time prior to report thereon—but not thereafter. If the application is withdrawn the Secretary shall notify all Rebekah lodges within the town or city thereof.

Sec. 12. Report of Committee. When the Investigating Committee has reported upon a petition of an applicant the same shall be balloted for with ball ballots, at a regular meeting only, and, if not more than two black balls appear, he or she shall be declared elected. If more than two black balls appear, he or she shall be declared rejected. Previous to balloting for said applicant the presiding officer shall deliver the following charge to the members, which shall be considered binding upon them:

Sisters and Brothers: You are about to decide upon the election of a candidate for membership to this lodge. Before voting let me admonish you to permit no religious, political or personal prejudice to influence your decision, but judge of the character of the applicant according to the same just and honorable standard by which you would have your own merits appreciated; by adhering to such rule you will insure the admission of none but worthy members into our lodge, and preserve in it the perpetual harmony of Friendship, Love and Truth.

In balloting for members, the ballot box must be inspected by the Noble Grand after which it shall be placed near the center of the hall, in full view of the Noble Grand and Vice Grand; but one member shall approach the same at a time. After the ballot is declared closed by the Noble Grand the same shall be examined by the Noble Grand and Vice Grand together at the center of the room, when the Noble Grand shall destroy the ballot.

Sec. 12a. Initiation. In initiating a candidate into a Rebekah lodge the work prescribed by the Ritual furnished by The Sovereign Grand Lodge must be adhered to, and no person except a member of the Rebekah lodge shall witness such work.

I. Rebekah lodges shall confer the degree on those persons only who apply for membership therein. A person elected to membership in a Rebekah lodge must receive the degree in the lodge in which such person was elected. The right and duty of conferring this degree cannot be transferred to another and different lodge.

II. In the case of brothers, membership in a Rebekah lodge is dependent on continuous good standing in a subordinate lodge, except that if a brother shall take a withdrawal card from the subordinate lodge of which he may be a member, his membership in his Rebekah lodge shall not be affected thereby for one year from the date of said withdrawal card, if during that time he shall keep his dues paid up in the Rebekah lodge; and if he shall, during said year, become a member of another lodge, by deposit of said card, his membership in the Rebekah lodge shall not be affected by the taking of the card.

Sec. 13. Membership on Visiting Card or Official Certificate. Any member of this degree shall have the privilege of applying for membership in any lodge, accompanying the application with a visiting card or official certificate in date, without first applying for a withdrawal card from the lodge in which he or she holds membership. Upon the election of such brother or sister by the lodge to which he or she shall apply for membership, said lodge shall notify the lodge of which he or she was until then a member, of such election, returning said visiting card or official certificate, when, being free from all charges and the payment of all dues and fees, said member shall be entitled to a withdrawal card. Upon deposit of such card with the lodge in which he or she was elected, he or she shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and By-Laws, and upon the signing of which he or she shall become a full member thereof. But, if the lodge to which he or she applies for membership as aforesaid, shall refuse his or her application, such proceeding on his or her part, and the part of such lodge, shall in no way affect membership in his or her former lodge. A favorable ballot under this section cannot be reconsidered.

Sec. 14. Favorable Ballots—Reconsideration Of. A favorable ballot may be reconsidered at any time previous to initiation, upon a two-thirds vote, by ball ballot, of all members present. When such favorable ballot is reconsidered the lodge shall at that or the next regular meeting proceed to a new ballot, as provided in Section 12 hereof.

Sec. 15. Unfavorable Ballots Reconsidered. Unfavorable ballots may be reconsidered only when all the brothers and sisters who have cast black balls against an applicant for membership voluntarily make a motion for reconsideration, and in such case the vote for reconsideration shall be by ball ballot; and, if all the ballots cast shall be in favor of it, the reconsideration shall be had. Whereupon the application shall lay over till the succeeding regular meeting, when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots, and if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant, he or she shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot, the applicant shall be rejected; and in no case shall a reconsideration be had, except upon the voluntary motion of all those who cast the black balls, and one reconsideration only shall be allowed in any one case, and, provided, always, that such reconsideration shall be had within the four regular meeting nights next succeeding the rejection.

Sec. 16. Re-Application for Membership. An applicant for membership who has been rejected, cannot again apply for membership within six months from the time of his or her rejection.

Sec. 17. Membership—When to Commence. Membership shall commence from the time the applicant signs the Constitution of the lodge.

Sec. 18. Forfeiture of Election. An election to membership shall be forfeited if the applicant does not present himself or herself for initiation, or to sign the Constitution, within two months after election—unless prevented by sickness or excused by the lodge.

Sec. 19. Constitution—Signing of It. This lodge shall keep a book wherein shall be found recorded the Constitution of this lodge, and at the end of such record the following to be signed by all members, to-wit:

We, the undersigned, each for himself or herself, promise to obey and comply with the foregoing Constitution, and amendments thereto, and all our rights and duties thereunder shall be determined solely by the laws and tribunals of this Order.

Sec. 20. Black Book. This lodge shall have a black book, in which shall be entered the names of all persons rejected, suspended or expelled by this lodge, or any lodge from which it may have received due notice, with the date and cause of such suspension or expulsion.

Sec. 21. Notification of Rejection, Etc. Whenever this lodge rejects, suspends or expels a member the Recording Secretary shall immediately notify all Rebekah lodges in the town or city; and in all cases of suspension, (except for non-payment of dues) or expulsion, said officer shall immediately notify the Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly.

Sec. 22. No Honorary Membership Allowed. No honorary membership shall exist in this lodge, and no person shall be initiated or admitted to membership without having paid the requisite fee.

Sec. 23. Fees—Admissions. Every application for membership by initiation must be accompanied by the proposition fee prescribed by the By-Laws of this lodge which shall not be less than three dollars.

Every application for membership, whether by official certificate, visiting or withdrawal card, or dismissal certificate, must be accompanied by a fee of three dollars, or such lesser sum as the By-Laws shall provide and no credit shall be given for the fees, which must be paid in cash.

Sec. 24. Fees Returned or Forfeited. If the applicant for membership is rejected the fee shall be returned to him or her by the Recording Secretary; if elected, said fee goes into the treasury of the lodge as its property—even if the applicant afterwards forfeits his or her election as herein provided.

Sec. 25. Elective Officers. The elective officers of this lodge shall be a Noble Grand, a Vice Grand, a Recording Secretary, a Financial Secretary, (provided, that when all the Secretarial duties of this lodge shall be performed by one officer, then the title of such office shall be Secretary), and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected the first meeting night in June and December of each year except the Financial Secretary who shall be elected the first meeting night in December.

Sec. 26. Nominations and Qualifications of Elective Officers. Nominations for elective officers, excepting delegates to the Rebekah Assembly, shall be made only on the night preceding the night of election, and no member can be voted for unless he or she has been previously nominated.

Sec. 27. Election of Officers. Each elective officer must be voted for separately by written ballot, and each must receive a majority of all the votes cast to be elected; and when there are more than two candidates in nomination the one having the least number of votes shall be withdrawn at each ballot. In the event of there being but one candidate for an office, the ballot may be dispensed with, and on motion, the Secretary may be authorized to cast the vote of the lodge.

Sec. 28. Appointive Officers. The appointive officers of this lodge shall be a Warden, a Conductor, an Inside Guardian, an Outside Guardian, Right and Left Supporter to Noble Grand, a Chaplain, and, at the option of the lodge an Organist, who shall be appointed by the Noble Grand; and Right and Left Supporter to the Vice Grand, who shall be appointed by the Vice Grand on the night of installation.

Sec. 29. Installations. Installations shall take place at the first regular meeting in each term, except in cases of emergency; provided, that no installation shall be had in any Rebekah lodge, nor shall a lodge be furnished with the Semi-Annual Pass Word unless the reports and Rebekah Assembly dues shall have been paid as evidenced by a receipt therefor from the Assembly Secretary, or paid to the installing officer who shall at once remit the same to the Assembly Secretary; and provided further, that no elective officer can be installed unless he or she has committed to memory at least the opening and closing charges of his or her office; and provided, further, that the Noble Grand and Vice Grand shall pass a satisfactory examination in open lodge in the opening and closing ceremonies, the Unwritten Work and the admonition to members before balloting for applicants, as set forth in Section 12 hereof—except at special elections. All appointive officers are required to commit to memory their charges in four weeks after their appointment, in default of which the Noble Grand shall declare the office vacant (except in case of sickness), and appoint another member thereto, on whom the above requirement shall also be considered binding.

Sec. 30. Private Installations. Private installations shall be conducted by the District Deputy President, or in his or her inability to act or at his or her request, by a Past Noble Grand in good standing; provided, however, that any elective officer of the Grand Lodge or of the Rebekah Assembly when present, may conduct the same.

Sec. 31. Installations—Public. Installations may be public only with the consent of the Grand Master or Assembly President, and such consent can only be given upon condition that the ceremonies be in charge of an elective officer of the Grand Lodge or of the Rebekah Assembly, or the District Deputy President of the district, and the "Form of Public Installations," prescribed by The Sovereign Grand Lodge alone be used.

Sec. 32. Vacancies, When; How Filled. Any officer absenting himself or herself for more than three successive meetings, his or her office may be declared vacant, by a vote of the lodge; and all vacancies shall be filled to serve the residue of the term.

Sec. 33. Qualification of Noble Grand and Vice Grand. After the first term of the lodge no member shall be eligible for the office of Noble Grand unless he or she has filled the office of Vice Grand; nor for the office of Vice Grand, unless he or she has filled one term in some elective or appointive office in a Rebekah lodge, other than Trustee. (Service in office whether elective or appointive is qualification for office in any other lodge as well as the one in which the office was filled.)

Sec. 33a. Service in Office. Officers must serve a majority of the meetings held in a term, and to the end of the term, in order to be entitled to the honors of the office. Officers elected, or appointed, to fill vacancies, and serving to the end of the term, shall be entitled to the honors of the office. Service in office in a subordinate lodge shall not be a qualification for office in a Rebekah lodge.

Sec. 34. Emergency Qualification. In case all members qualified as required by Section 33 hereof, refuse to accept either of the elective offices therein mentioned, any member in good standing may be elected; provided, the lodge has first obtained for this purpose a dispensation from the Grand Master, or Assembly President.

Sec. 35. Nomination and Election of Delegates. The nomination for and election of delegates to the Rebekah Assembly shall be in manner and form as prescribed for the election of officers in Rebekah lodges, and the candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

Nominations shall be made at the first regular meeting night in the month of May. In case two or more names are presented as nominees, a ballot shall immediately be taken and the name receiving the majority of all votes cast shall be the nominee of said lodge. Past Noble Grands can be nominated only in the lodges to which they belong. Immediately upon each nomination being made, the Recording Secretary shall notify, by mail, all other lodges in the district of the nomination. The election shall be held the first regular meeting night in June. On the night of the election, immediately after the opening of the lodge, the Noble Grand shall declare the ballot open for receiving votes for delegates, and shall appoint two tellers to receive the votes; and immediately before closing the lodge the Noble Grand shall declare the ballot closed.

Sec. 36. Who Entitled to Vote. All members in good standing shall be entitled to vote, a record by the Secretary being kept of the names of the members voting, and each of said members shall select and write on one ballot as many names from the nominees of the district as said district is entitled to delegates. Lodges working under a dispensation, if having complied with all requirements, can vote for a Past Noble Grand in their district for a delegate, but cannot nominate a delegate from their own lodge.

Sec. 37. Canvassing Vote. It shall be the duty of the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary—with the assistance of the tellers—of each lodge within such district, immediately upon the close of the ballot for delegate, to count the same in open lodge, making an abstract of the vote so cast, sign the same, cause the result to be entered upon the minutes, and immediately certify to the Vice President the number of votes cast, and for whom.

Sec. 37a. If the return from any lodge is not mailed within ten days after the first meeting night in June of the lodge from which the return is sent, it shall not be counted.

All returns from special elections reaching the Vice President later than October 1st will not affect the election. If a member thus served shall fail to pay such arrearage within the four weeks aforesaid, he or she shall be dropped from membership, unless further time be given by the lodge; if such further time so given expires without the payment of said arrearage, then said lodge may drop said brother or sister without further notice.

A non-contributing member may be reinstated in the manner provided for reinstatement of members suspended for non-payment of dues.

Sec. 56. Dropped Member—How Reinstated. Any person heretofore dropped for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated in the lodge from which he or she has been dropped by making application in writing and paying the prescribed fee. All applications for admission by reinstatement shall be referred to a committee, who shall investigate into the character of the applicant, and report at the next regular meeting when a ballot shall be had and all votes taken under this section shall be by ball ballot.

I. Within one year after he or she is dropped, a member may be reinstated upon payment of one year's dues or fines, by a vote of a majority of the members present.

II. If a dropped member shall not apply for reinstatement until after one year from the time he or she has been dropped the application for reinstatement must be accompanied with the amount of fee charged for an initiate or such lesser sum as may be prescribed by the By-Laws of the lodge, but in no case shall the amount be less than one dollar and if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor thereof, the member shall be reinstated.

CARDS

Sec. 58. Visiting Cards. A member in good standing may, by application (personal or otherwise) to this lodge, obtain a visiting card, which shall be valid for any period of time expressed on its face. When the time has expired for which such card was granted, the member must return it to the lodge.

Sec. 59. Application for a Visiting Card. Application for a visiting card shall be made in open lodge at a regular meeting, and if no one objects, the same shall be granted; provided, the Noble Grand and Secretary may, during the recess of the lodge, grant such card upon the written application, in the manner provided in Section 62 hereof; and, provided, in all cases, that a member has no charges pending against him or her, is not in arrears, and dues are paid in advance for the length of time card is to extend.

Sec. 60. Objection to Granting Visiting Cards. Should a member object to the granting of a visiting card, he or she shall, if required by the Noble Grand or the lodge, reduce such objections to writing. The Noble Grand shall thereupon appoint a committee of three to investigate such objections, who shall report as early as practicable. A vote shall then be taken upon the granting of such card, and a majority of the members present shall decide.

Sec. 61. Duplicate Visiting Card. When a visiting card is lost a duplicate may be granted on the same conditions as on a lost withdrawal card, as provided in Section 67.

Sec. 62. Methods of Obtaining Visiting Card Between Lodge Meetings. Application for a visiting card between lodge meetings shall be made in writing and accompanied by the fee, and certificate of the Financial Secretary showing his or her dues are paid in advance for the length of time the card is to extend; it shall then be endorsed by the Noble Grand and Secretary, and reported at the next regular meeting, and the fee paid to the Financial Secretary. The Noble Grand and the Secretary cannot receive dues between meetings and receipt therefor, to a member applying for a visiting card. The Financial Secretary alone has charge of the accounts between this lodge and its members.

Sec. 63. Withdrawal Cards. A member desiring a withdrawal card shall make application therefor, in writing, at a regular meeting. If such member is in good standing, the Noble Grand shall order a ballot to be had, and if a majority of the members vote in favor of granting the same his or her membership is severed: in which case he or she is entitled to a withdrawal card upon payment of fee for the card.

Sec. 63a. Resignation of Membership and Certificate of Resignation.

I. A member free from all indebtedness to the lodge shall have the right to sever his or her membership with the lodge by tendering thereto a resignation of membership in writing.

II. When one who shall have severed his or her connection with the Order by written resignation shall apply to the lodge in which he or she formerly held membership such person shall be entitled to receive upon payment of fee for the same, a certificate of resignation in the following form as prescribed by Section 195 of the Code:

Sec. 64. Renewal of Membership. Renewal of membership in this lodge can be legally effected by deposit of card. The withdrawal card, certificate of resignation, dismissal certificate or written evidence of membership in a defunct lodge, and the proper fee must accompany the application, as the case may be.

Where a withdrawal card has been lost or destroyed, and the member to whom it was granted is in good standing, the lodge is bound to issue a duplicate card upon application, and the payment of the requisite fee, said card to bear the same date as the original, and to be in all respects like it, with the addition of the word "Duplicate" written thereon.

Sec. 68. Certificate in Lieu of Duplicate Withdrawal Card. Where a withdrawal card has been lost or destroyed, and the lodge can not be satisfied that the member is in good standing and upon this ground refuses to issue a duplicate card, it may grant a certificate, under seal, setting forth the facts of the original issuing of the card; and upon this certificate the member may be re-admitted to membership and be entitled to the rank which he or she can prove to have attained.

Sec. 69. Method of Annuling Withdrawal Card. The vote upon granting a withdrawal card can not be reconsidered or rescinded; but if it be discovered, before the issuing thereof, that the member has been guilty of an offense, the card may be withheld, and he or she brought to trial; or if it shall have been issued, he or she may be subjected to the same ordeal; and if convicted in either case, the card may be annulled.

Sec. 70. Members Holding Expired Withdrawal Cards Not Entitled to Meet in Public Processions, Etc. Members holding withdrawal cards, the time for which such members are entitled to visit having expired, are not entitled to meet in public procession or funerals, or to participate in any lodge matter, or be entitled to recognition as members of this degree.

Sec. 70a. Transfer Certificate. A member of the Order who shall change his or her residence from the territorial jurisdiction of his or her Rebekah lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of another Rebekah lodge, or who may be transferred from the territorial jurisdiction of one Rebekah lodge to another by a change of the territorial jurisdiction in which he or she shall reside, and who shall be in possession of an official certificate or visiting card showing his or her dues paid not less than four weeks in advance of the date of his or her application for membership as hereinafter provided, and who shall desire to unite with a Rebekah lodge at the place of his or her new residence, may do so by making application for such membership accompanied by his or her official certificate or visiting card and a fee of twenty-five cents, and by complying with the law applicable thereto. If elected to membership, as provided by local law the Secretary of the Rebekah lodge shall immediately send notice of such election, together with said fee of twenty-five cents, to the Rebekah lodge issuing the visiting card or official certificate and request such Rebekah lodge to issue a transfer certificate for the member. The Rebekah lodge, upon receiving such request and fee, shall, unless charges be pending against such member, issue such transfer certificate without ballot and send the same at once to the Secretary of the Rebekah lodge making such request. Upon the receipt of such transfer certificate the member shall be entitled to sign the Constitution and become a member of the new Rebekah lodge without the payment of any additional admission fee, and the Rebekah lodge issuing such transfer certificate shall, upon receiving notice from the new Rebekah lodge of the date of signing the Constitution of such Rebekah lodge, refund to such member all dues paid in advance of such date.

The issuing of a transfer certificate by a Rebekah lodge shall immediately sever the membership of the person to whom the same shall be issued from such lodge; provided that if the member shall die or shall return to reside within the territorial jurisdiction of the lodge granting the transfer certificate within the period for which dues have been paid in advance and before completing membership in his or her new lodge by signing the Constitution thereof, the transfer certificate so issued shall be cancelled, and the member shall retain his or her standing in his or her old lodge the same as though no transfer certificate had been issued.

lodge to which he or she belonged shall grant, upon application, a dismissal certificate, upon the receipt of one dollar.

Sec. 72. When Lodge Has Refused to Reinstate. Where this lodge, upon proper application, has refused to reinstate a member who has been dropped for non-payment of dues, he or she shall be entitled to receive, and the lodge shall grant a dismissal certificate, upon the payment of one dollar.

Sec. 73. Deposit of Dismissal Certificate. Dismissal certificates do not entitle the recipients to the annual pass word, or the right to visit but may be received on deposit in the same manner as expired withdrawal cards, and upon the terms expressed in this Constitution under application for membership.
